

YOUR SMILE

Though your smile is gone forever,
And your hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories,
Of the ones we loved so much.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part,
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our hearts.

JUST REMEMBER ME

Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow,
But remember me in every tomorrow.
Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles.
I've only gone to rest a little while.
Although my leaving causes pain and grief,
My going has eased my hurt and given me relief.
So dry your eyes and remember me, not as I am now,
But as I used to be. Because I will remember you all and look on with a smile. Understand, in your hearts,
I've gone only to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you,
I can live my life in the heart of all of you.

OBITUARY

Victor Leroy Young Sr. was born on December 10, 1940 in Harlem, New York to Helen Young. He passed away at the age of 75 on June 2, 2016.

Victor grew up in Glenelg, Howard County, Maryland. He graduated in 1958 from Harriet Tubman High-school. After graduation he moved to New York City where he began his employment as a grocery clerk.

On August 19, 1971, Victor met Ernestine Hutto and quickly fell in love with her. They married on December 10 of that same year – the day of his birthday!

Victor and Ernestine continued to live in NYC until they moved to Lakewood, NJ in 1975. He transferred his employment to New Jersey while Ernestine commuted to the city where she worked for the New York City Housing Authority. In 1979 Victor and Ernestine gave birth to their son, Victor Leroy Jr., who passed away at 2 1/2 years of age.

One of Victor's past times was bowling. He played in several leagues and had many trophies which decorated his home. He also loved to entertain. Victor would have basement get-togethers and his infamous 4th of July barbecues. The barbecues brought over a hundred friends and family members together for over 20 years! Victor will always be remembered for his endless grill of BBQ ribs, love of Budweiser, and his easy going way of making people smile.

He was predeceased by his mother, Helen Young; step-father, Roland "Jiggs" Johnson; brother, Calvin Hall; and his grandparents.

He is survived by his wife, Ernestine Young; godson, Jonathan Sandridge; brother, Vincent Manley; niece, Michele Bowman (Robert); 3 nephews; uncles, Samuel Young (Jeannette), and Charles Young (Carol); aunt, Edna Johnson (Walter); and a host of cousins and friends.
