

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family now wishes to express its gratitude to you. We thank God with deep appreciation for everything He has done, is doing, and promises to do. We are truly grateful to him for giving us friends and family like you. Every thought and expressed kind deed you did, and the prayers you prayed will be cherished in our hearts. Continue to keep us in your prayers as we move forward in our lives, and you shall be in ours. Thank you for all manner of services rendered on our behalf.

Special Thanks

We extend sincere thanks to VA Medical Center, Jackson, MS and VA Nursing Home, Jackson, MS.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

David Maples Jr.

*"Well done, good and faithful servant...
enter into the joy of your Lord." | Matthew 25:23*

David Maples Jr. was born on May 30, 1936, to the late David and Willie Mae Maples. He attended high school in Yazoo City, Mississippi, and later married Lesterine Maples.

He eventually moved to Jackson, Mississippi, where he became a devoted member of the Church of God in Christ. David proudly served in the United States Air Force from August 27, 1954, to October 7, 1957. After completing his military service, he earned his bachelor's degree from Jackson and began working at the Sonny Montgomery VA Medical Center. He served faithfully as a carpenter for 35 years, retiring in 1990.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Lesterine Maples; his son, Michael Maples; and two sisters: Cethel Hillman and Arletha Reed.

David leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Jacqueline Cain of Jackson, Mississippi; and his brother, Willie (Thelma) Maples of Yazoo City, Mississippi. He is remembered with love by his nephews: Ronnie Reed and James Reed; his niece, Bettie Reed, and a host of aunts, uncles, relatives, and friends.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
So, when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.*

TRIBUTES

To My Dad
Dad, I love you through bad and good. I didn't expect this to happen, and I know you are in a better place.
Rest dad, no more pain.
Love always,
Your daughter, Jacqueline

To My Granddad
Where do I begin
I will miss you and
I enjoyed the years
We shared; we will Meet again.
Love always,
Your grand baby,
Jasmine House

Grandad
I will cherish
Your memory.
And forever hold
You in my heart!
Love always,
Your granddaughter,
Andrea Nicole Crawford
