Obituary

Clancy Mae Berry was born on August 24, 1926, in Hepzibah, Georgia, to the union of the late Carmie Sr. and Sarah Bryant. She was the fourth of six children.

She accepted Christ at age 12 at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Hepzibah, Georgia, under the pastorate of Rev. Warren Jones. She was educated in the Hepzibah Public Schools.

On April 19, 1941, Clancy was united in holy matrimony to her beloved husband, John E. Berry Sr. To this union, five children were born. They were married almost 70 years until his passing. She was a devoted wife and mother.

In 1943, she and her husband moved to Cleveland, Ohio. Soon after, she and her husband joined Liberty Hill Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Marion F. Washington.

She was employed by University Hospitals of Cleveland, where she received her training and certificate for Nursing Assistants. She was a dedicated employee, and caring to her patients. She retired after 26 years of service from the Intensive Care Unit.

Clancy's main focus in life was her love for family and her devotion to her friends and church community. She was a dedicated member of the Sunday School, the Senior Matrons, Golden Age Seniors, the concert choir, and the Wednesday noon Bible study class. She was secretary of the Friends Social Club, which lasted over 40 years.

She was one to whom people were drawn, having many telephone friends and always making sure to keep up with the sick and shut-in. Often, she and her husband would spend many days visiting members in hospitals and nursing homes.

Clancy has joined her husband, John E. Berry Sr., in heaven; her sisters, Margaret Simmons (Henry), Willa Mae Wiley (Washington), Lula (Tom), and Sarah (Robert); and her brother, Carmie (Angie).

She leaves to mourn her passing: four sons, John Jr. (Brenda), George A. (Karen), Charles T. (Margaret), and Steven A.; one daughter, Detra; 19 grandchildren; a combined 35 great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; as well as nieces, nephews, cousins, her special sister, Mrs. Willa Washington, and friends.

Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you, will always bring a smile.

*If only I could have you back,
for just a little while.*

*Then we could sit and talk again,
just like we used to do.*

*You always meant so very much,
and always will too.*

*The fact you are no longer here,
will always cause me pain,
but you are forever in my heart,
until we meet again.*

SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

*The family gratefully acknowledges the care, support, and kindness extended during this time by the Hospice of the Western Reserve, Crossroads Hospice, Home Support of Cuyahoga County,
Tina Eursher, Loistine Wells, and Antoinette Morris.*
