

Crossing the Bar

BY ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Life's Reflection

Chester Litman was born May 23, 1921 in Athens, Georgia to the union of Eugene Litman and Ella Hill. He exchanged time for eternity on January 11, 2015. He was a devoted father and grandfather.

Chester attended St. Anthony Elementary, High School and St. Anthony Catholic Church as a child. Following Chester's education, he was self employed as a general contractor.

Chester was an avid reader who loved to share his knowledge of current worldly events and he loved to talk about the history of Cincinnati, Ohio. He was an impeccable dresser who kept up with the latest styles.

Chester will always be remembered as a warm, kindhearted man who loved to spend time with his family.

He leaves to mourn one son, Arthur Gore; one grandson, Arthur Gore Jr. and two great-grandsons, Quintin Turner and Arthur J. Gore III; one sister, Ella Brown and host of nieces and nephews.
