LIFE REFLECTIONS

an Sheldon “Shane” Prioleau, Jr. was born on February 24, 2004, to his loving and devoted parents, Shanetta McGill and Ian Sheldon Prioleau, Sr. He departed this life peacefully on Sunday, August 9, 2026.

Ian was a proud graduate of Summerville High School. He was a loving and caring young man with a beautiful heart and soul. Ian loved his family dearly and will always be remembered for his warm smile, kind spirit, and gentle heart.

Ian had a passion for working with his hands and especially enjoyed restoring and fixing old model cars. His love for cars was more than a hobby—it was something that brought him joy and allowed his creativity to shine. He will forever be remembered for his passion, his loving personality, and the special memories he created with those who loved him.

Ian leaves to cherish his precious memories his parents, Shanetta McGill and Ian Sheldon Prioleau, Sr.; his brothers, Zion Benson and Damari Prioleau, both of Summerville, SC; his loving grandmother, Virginia Prioleau; and his caring grandfather, Anthony Brown, Sr., both of North Charleston, SC.

He also leaves his uncles, Michael (Kiesha) Jones, Jr., Rashaam “Boo” McGill, Duane (Latoya) McGill, Curtis (Diane) McGill, Kevin McGill, Rodney Prioleau, Jr., Orlando Prioleau, both of North Charleston and Richard Smith, Jr. of Syracuse, NY; great-granduncles, James (Cynthia) McGill and Blease Herman (Ruth) Green; aunts, Jackie McGill, Lorraine (Gino) Soule, Shirley Rioos, Diana Rioos, Annette Montgomery, and Debra (Ollie) Rivers; great-grandaunts, Florence Smalls, Cynthia Holmes, Deborah (Robert) Smalls, and Nora Lane Benbow; along with a host of cousins, friends, and other relatives who will forever cherish his memory.

Though his time with us was far too short, Ian’s love, smile, and memories will remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. He will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished.

A Tribute to Our Son in Heaven

I wish I didn't have to write it,
I wish deeply that you were here, but it's vital that I pen it, to make my message clear.
Son, you left us far too soon,
and my heart still rip and aches
When you left, my words shook violently, causing a heart full of sad earthquakes
In the wake of your untimely death, we’ve wept profusely and darkly in sorrow
wishing for less pain and suffering, hoping for a brighter tomorrow.
But amidst the sadness and misery
We have beautiful memories too,
So many recollections of our wonderful life with you.
We were so protective of you always,
from your very first breath.
Yet I couldn't protect you from everything not least of all your early death
You were the gleaming light of our world;
your smile dazzled with sparkling delight.
You got more amazing every day and more wonderful as your character took flight.
You were an incredible human being,
always your own unique, wonderful guy.
And the hardest thing done in life was to farewell
you, to say goodbye. We've missed you,

Always
Your Loving Parents.
