Life Reflectors

Jeffrey Clinton Combs was born October 10, 1961, in Chicago, Illinois to his loving mother, Jeanette Combs. He was the sixth child of seven children. Jeffrey made his transition peacefully Monday, September 9, 2024.

Jeffrey was raised on the Southside of Chicago where he attended Walter Scott School and graduated from eighth grade in 1975. He continued his studies at Hyde Park High School and graduated in 1979. Jeffrey began his work career at Chicago Board of Trade as a Runner for Rosenthal & Company. He held many other jobs, mainly as a laborer.

Jeffrey relocated to Minneapolis, Minnesota in 1998. He stayed with his brother Corey and his wife Pat for several years. Although Jeff never married or had children, he loved kids and was a loving uncle to his nieces.

In 2008, Jeff relocated back to the Chicagoland area settling with his sister Barbara in Lansing, Illinois. Jeff accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior and attended Evangelistic Deliverance Center every Sunday with his sister. He served in the church faithfully wherever a helping hand was needed. Jeff loved to praise the Lord and sing worship songs. He loved attending the annual Global Men's Conferences with the church. In his later years, Jeff moved to Renaissance Apartments in Hammond, Indiana, where he was known and loved by many.

Jeff used to enjoy grilling as well as eating! For the holidays, he would pile his plate so high, knowing he could not eat all of it at one time. He would always end up taking a hefty plate home. Jeff was a big sports fan. He enjoyed watching football and basketball games on TV. In his leisure time, Bingo was also a source of enjoyment. Being a helpful person, Jeff would often run errands for the seniors in the building. Jeff was a jokerster, he loved making people laugh. Jeff was someone everyone could get along with! He was such a kindhearted person with a loving personality to match.

Jeffrey was preceded in death by his mother Jeanette Combs, sister Juliette Downs and his brothers, Corey Jackson and Carson Combs, nephew Jason Combs and niece Carla Montgomery.

Jeffrey leaves to cherish his memories his sisters Barbara Montgomery and Beverly Combs, his brother Vincent Combs, brother-in-law, Napoleon Downs I (Clara), sister-in-law, Pat Scott Jackson. His nieces: Sheree, Camille, Latrice, Marqueta, Courtney, Kenyarah, Veronica and Miarrah. His nephews: Napoleon II, Raynard, Elliott, Timothy, Joshua, Micah, Brian, Angelo, Corey Jr, La Bradford and a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins, and friends.
