TO MY FAMILY

Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there. I did not die.

TRIBUTES OF LOVE

In Loving Memory of a special Husband

The day you left and gained your wings, my heart just broke in two. I wish you could have stayed with me, but Heaven needed you. You left me with the memories, and I love you dearly still, No matter how much time goes by you know I always will. You were a very special person with kindness in your heart, And the love we had together grows stronger now we're apart. I know I cannot bring you back although I wish it every day, But a piece of me went with you the day you went away.

Love Your Wife, Brinda

Remembering

The beauty of a memory is that it's always there. Like a penny in your pocket, you can take it anywhere. And when your heart is heavy and your eyes are filled with tears, You can focus on a memory, and travel through the years. Your heart can visit happy times, when laughter filled the air, And the presence of your loved one, will lessen your despair. So, as you travel on in life, take comfort as you go, In a lifetime of "sweet memories," of one who loved you so!
