

WHEN BUTTERFLIES FLY HOME

A butterfly begins in humble form,
Quietly preparing for the day it will soar.
Though the journey is unseen by many,
Its purpose has always been to fly.

So it is with a precious life.

When earthly seasons have been completed,
God gently opens the wings of His child,
Calling them from the cares of this world
Into the beauty of His eternal garden.

Though we long to hold them close,
Love does not end when they take flight.

It rises with them—
Carried on the wings of cherished memories,
Gentle laughter, faithful love,
And the countless moments
that will forever bloom in our hearts.

Today, we release our tears,
But we also release our gratitude
For a life that brought color to our own,
A spirit that inspired hope,
And a legacy that will never fade.

For every butterfly leaves behind a reminder:
Transformation is not the end—
It is the beginning of something more beautiful than we can imagine.

So whenever a butterfly dances upon the breeze,
May it whisper to your heart that love still lives,
That heaven is real,
And that those who have gone before us
Are finally free to soar in the presence of God.

Until we meet again,
Fly high, beautiful butterfly.
Your wings have carried you home.

FAMILY MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

We, the Family of Keneidra Cumming-Williams, wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to each of you for your thoughtfulness during this difficult season of our lives. Your calls, prayers, and kind gestures have provided strength for our family during this transition. Continue to keep us in your thoughts and prayers in the days to come.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

REFLECTIONS OF LIFE

Keneidra Al'trease Cummings-Williams was born on September 6, 1986, in Port Arthur, Texas, to Patricia Weaver and Alvin Eugene Cummings. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and became actively involved in the life of the church.

Keneidra, affectionately “KeKe”, was a proud graduate of Apalachicola High School, Class of 2005. Following graduation, she attended Tallahassee State College and later dedicated thirteen years of service to the State of Florida, working in Department of Business and Professional Regulations (DBPR).

In 2024, Keneidra returned to the community she loved and called home. She was employed by the Franklin County Jail through the Trinity Food Service Program, where she remained until her passing. Keneidra embraced life with a vibrant spirit and infectious personality. She loved life and deeply cherished the people who were a part of it. Whether spending time with family, enjoying the company of friends, sharing laughter, or creating lasting memories, she found joy in meaningful connections.

On June 17, 2026, Keneidra peacefully departed this earthly life in Panama City, Florida, and entered into eternal rest. Awaiting her arrival in glory were her maternal grandparents, Bernice Weaver, Willie Weaver, and Eugene Russ; and her paternal grandparents, Moses Cummings, Sr. and Bertha Cummings.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her three beloved sons, Zy'On Jasiah Williams of Columbus, Georgia, Zy'Marion Jh'Kel Williams, and Zy'Keis Williams of Tallahassee, Florida; her stepdaughter, Heaven Williams of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; her loving mother, Patricia Weaver-Lane (the late William Lane); her father, Alvin (Felicia) Cummings; and her sisters, Sheneidra Cummings, Alviuana Cummings, and Nakeria Miller.

She also leaves to cherish her memory her devoted aunts: Jacqueline (Michael) Bougere of Gulfport, Mississippi; Tina (Julius) Hamilton of Nashville, Tennessee; Trina Cummings of Marianna, Florida; Bonnie (Harrison) Jones of Apalachicola, Florida; Jennifer Russ; Julie Bunyon of California, and Cora McLemore of Moss Point, Mississippi. Her memory will also be treasured by her loving uncles: Larry (Brenda) Cummings of Apalachicola, Florida; Fredrick Cummings; Steve Cummings of Panama City, Florida; James (Asa) Bennett of Lake Charles, Louisiana; Anthony (Valerie) Weaver; and Wendell (Katherine) Weaver of Palm Coast, Florida. In addition, she leaves a host of cherished nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends whose lives were forever enriched by her love, kindness, and unwavering presence.

Though her earthly journey has ended, the love Keneidra shared, the lives she touched, and the memories she created will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Her legacy of faith, love, strength, and devotion to family will forever remain a source of comfort and inspiration to those she leaves behind.
