

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Sandy Archer would like to express our deepest appreciation for the many acts of kindness, prayers, calls, visits, and comforting words shared during this time of sorrow. Your love and support have truly lifted our hearts and reminded us of the power of faith, family, and friendship.

We are especially grateful to the Evangel Assembly of God family for your continued love, prayers, and service. Your presence and support throughout the years meant so much to Sandy and continue to bless our family today.

To all who have sent cards, flowers, or offered a helping hand in any way—please know that your thoughtfulness has not gone unnoticed. Each act of kindness has brought comfort and strength during this difficult time.

May God bless each of you richly for the love and compassion you have shown as we celebrate the life and memory of Sandy Archer.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Sandy Archer, born on February 7, 1958, in New York City to Mary and Horace Archer, passed away recently. He was preceded in death by his parents as well as his brothers, Lester D. Williams and Johnny Lee Williams.

Sandy completed his high school education in New York City and furthered his studies at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. Throughout his life, he resided in the Maryland and Washington, D.C. area.

Sandy was a beloved partner and friend of Evangel Assembly of God in Temple Hills, Maryland, for more than 20 years. Over the years, he participated in the Usher Ministry, Men's Ministry, Men's Prayer Breakfast, and eventually became the head of the Security Ministry. Sandy was a "gentle giant," always giving through words and acts of kindness. He was gracious and a good listener, always taking the time to help others. Sandy's big heart, along with his big smile, will be dearly missed. We are sure that Sandy was received into Heaven and most certainly heard the words, "Well done, my good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord."

He is survived by two sisters, Hazel Fulton and Linda Pough of Selma, North Carolina; his beloved niece, Lynn Williams of Maryland; and a cherished family of numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will remember him fondly.

FOR SANDY

Sandy's smile was warm and kind,
His gentle heart, a peaceful mind.
Though he's gone, his love will stay,
Guiding us along the way.
