

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,

So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,

All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.

Obituary

Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on July 8, 1951, Yvonne Williams was the daughter of Josh and Rose Lee Williams. After conquering the trials and tribulations of life and embracing it with a strength like no other, as a single mother, she raised a strong and loving family. Yvonne was called home to rest with our Lord on December 9, 2024, at the age of 73.

Yvonne gave birth to and nurtured five children, who gave her thirteen grandchildren and more than thirteen great-grandchildren. She provided a home filled with love for her children, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. Yvonne worked for the Internal Revenue Service for over 30 years and built an amazing career while touching the hearts of so many. Throughout her life, Yvonne cultivated many lasting relationships in her professional and personal life and will be missed by so many. She will be remembered for her infectious laugh and willingness to support her family—both immediate and extended—and her friends. With the passing of her mother, Yvonne stepped up to the mantle and hosted family gatherings to ensure that we remained a connected family. She taught her son and daughters how to cook and care for their families, then passed on the tradition to her grandchildren, who will continue to carry on her love for cooking.

Yvonne was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters Deborah Ruth Williams, Shirley Ann Burnett, and Anna Joyce Burgess, and her eldest child, Billy Washington. She leaves behind to carry on her love and nurture her daughters and sons-in-law, Theresa and Donald (Donnie) Milton, Raichelle and Ronzo Cartwright, Roseshawona (Rosie) Williams, and Katya (Kasha) Williams; her brother and sister-in-law, Ricky and Sandra Williams; her grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and close friends.

I'd like the memory of me
 To be a happy one,
 I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
 when life is done.
 I'd like to leave an echo
 Whispering softly down the ways,
 Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
 I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
 To dry before the sun
 Of happy memories
 that I leave behind
 When life is done.
