

Until We Meet Again

*When my Life on Earth is done
I know you will be sad
For you will miss the body
That my Spirit once clad*

*But look at this thru my eyes
And maybe you will see
There is no need for sadness
For love is surrounding me*

*I'm here with God in heaven
No pain, no hurt, just joy
Beauty that I can't describe
And man cannot destroy*

*For all of us have a purpose
Our souls are meant to grow
We teach, we learn, we suffer
And then it's time to go*

*You may not comprehend it
But soon I hope you see
That this how God planned it
We are where we're meant to be*

*And when your earthly journey
Is finally at an end
You and I will come to be*

- Together once again for Eternity

~ Remembering ~

Ms. Margie Ann Roberts was born on July 23, 1951, in Butts County, Georgia to the late Willie Lee Stodghill and Thelma Stodghill.

Margie attended Butts County School System. As a child, she was baptized at Oak Grove Baptist Church. Later in her adult life, she joined the Rock Springs Baptist Church under the late Reverend Eddie J. Tomlinson where she served on the Usher Board. Her continuance to serve the Lord directed her to Restoration Community Outreach under the guidance of her sister, Pastor Mary Stodghill-Price.

Margie was employed and retired at GSW in Covington, GA. She loved spending time with her family and friends. She loved to cook, fish, gardening both vegetables and flowers. Working in the yard was her passion. She absolutely loved and took pride in being the Top Cook of the Family. She also loved shopping and yard sales. She was the life of the party and the loudmouth of the Family. She could cut up & make anybody feel shy and laugh at the same time. She could never pronounce names correctly and would simply “make-up” a name. Standing 4’ ft tall, she could talk a million dollars’ worth of “trash” and could stand on it. She didn’t hold back or hide anything that she had to say and would follow with her signature saying, “Wit cha ugly a” (and burst out laughing).

Margie indeed touched the lives of many people. She had a heart of gold, and you could not miss her big affectionate smile. Over the last ten years, she wholeheartedly dedicated her life fully to Christ and his love radiated in all that she did. Margie had a huge heart for her son, grandchildren, siblings, nieces, nephews and bonus children.

~ Cherished Memoires ~

Most times, she’d be quiet as a mouse but would walk up to say how handsome or beautiful you were and that she loves you. She was unselfish and she’d offer to help do whatever was needed.

On March 30, 2025, her Heavenly angel carried her home to be with the Lord where he was waiting with open arms. She is proceeded in death by her late husband, Roosevelt Roberts; sister, Josephine Stodghill; brothers, Walter Stodghill and Chuck Stodghill.

She leaves the treasure of her memories with her son, Nathan (Veronica) Stodghill and daughter, Wonda Roberts; siblings, Willie (Sonny) Weaver, Jackson, GA; Arthur (Mary Francis) Stodghill, Covington, GA; Elsie (Nathaniel) Harris, Locust Grove, GA; Glenda Stodghill, Jackson, GA; Mildred (Ralph) Davis, McDonough, GA; Michael Stodghill, Covington, GA and Mary Rose (Paul) Price, Jackson, GA. Grandchildren, Maurice, Natterious (Pokey), Courtney, and Amari Stodghill, Antonio Ingram, LaReco Herring and Michael Cook; great grandchildren, Kalani and Makayla Stodghill, Teniyah Jones, and Michael Cook III. Her bonus grandson, Alex Davis and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
