

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Randall Dean Stevenson

Randall Dean Stevenson, 71, of Sedalia, Missouri, passed away on Wednesday, November 6, 2024, at Bothwell Regional Health Center in Sedalia. He was born on January 10, 1953, in Sedalia, the son of Everett E. and Mary E. (Swope) Stevenson, both of whom preceded him in death.

Randy, as he was known to friends and family, was a proud graduate of Smithton High School, class of 1972. He spent much of his life working for his family's business, Stevenson Tractor Company, where he began as a tractor mechanic and paint technician. He later went on to work for Tyson Foods and retired in 2010 from Hayes Wheels, after many years of dedicated service. Throughout his life, Randy was a passionate Ford enthusiast and enjoyed attending auctions, flea markets, and coin shows, where he added to his beloved collections of coins and Currier & Ives dishes.

Randy's greatest joy, however, was spending time with his family. He treasured the memories made during camping trips with his children, and he was especially proud of his grandchildren, who brought him immense happiness.

Randy is survived by his three children: two daughters, Christy Cunningham and her husband Jason of Sedalia, and Jennifer Cramer and her husband Robert of Smithton; a son, Bryan Stevenson and his wife Rian of Sedalia; and ten grandchildren: Allison, Cooper, Corie, Ty, Sophia, Corbin, Haven, Trenton, Harlee, and Carlee. He is also survived by five siblings: LeRoy Stevenson and his wife Judy of Smithton, Larry Stevenson and his wife Mary Jo of Sedalia, Linda Reid and her husband Jim of Sedalia, Glenda Stevenson of Nebraska, and Jerry Stevenson of Springfield, Missouri. In addition, he leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss him dearly.
