

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Carolyn Sue Foster

Carolyn Sue Foster, 80, of Sedalia, MO, passed away on Monday, January 22, 2024, at Bothwell Regional Health Center in Sedalia. She was born on May 23, 1943, in Jefferson City, MO, the daughter of Edward Price Vaughan and Edna May (Klick) Vaughan, who preceded her in death.

On October 19, 1963 in Jefferson City, MO, she was united in marriage to James Foster, who resides in the home.

Sue was a 1961 graduate of Jefferson City High School. She attended the University of Missouri where she met the love of her life, James Foster, on a blind date. Sue and her husband, Jim, owned and operated Jim's Gardens Center for over 40 years in Sedalia. She and Jim hosted an hour long gardening show on KSIS and then later KDRO radio stations from 1980 until 2010. Sue enjoyed gardening, cooking, traveling out west to Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Arizona, and Nevada. She especially loved her family and spending time together.

Along with her husband, Sue is survived by two sons, James Edward Foster and Price Luther Foster and his wife Brandi all of Sedalia; one grandson, Jacob Key; two sisters, June Mengwasser (Kenneth) of Jefferson City, and Laurie Fry of Houston, TX; numerous nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews.
