Gone But Not Forgotten

You never asked for much in life,
Just simple days, no need for more.
A quiet strength, a steady soul,
The kind of love we can't ignore.
You showed us how to carry on,
Through every storm, through every test,
With dignity in all you did,
And courage beating in your chest.
Though you are gone from sight today,
Your presence we still feel so near,
In every laugh, in every memory,
In every moment, you are here.
And while our hearts may ache with loss,
We find our peace in knowing this—
You lived, you loved, you gave your all,

THANK YOU

Thank you for coming together to celebrate the life of Gary Price. Your presence today has provided solace and comfort to our hearts. May God bless you all.

GARY PRICE

Gary Price was born on December 27, 1961, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Jimmy Lee Price and Cussie Lee Price. He was the ninth child in a loving family and was called home to eternal rest on March 6, 2026.

Gary was known for his quiet strength, independence, charm, and strong work ethic. He graduated from Hughes High School in 1978, where he developed a passion for auto body repair. He dedicated many years to his craft as a car painter and took great pride in his work.

Gary enjoyed music, spending time with family, and being around those he loved. Though quiet in nature, his presence was deeply felt. He was a loving brother, a cherished uncle, and someone who held a special place in the hearts of many.

He leaves to cherish his memory his brothers Gregory and Andrew, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and a dear friend, Sheena.

Gary will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

HE WALKED THIS LIFE WITH QUIET GRACE,
A STEADY HEART, A GENTLE PACE.
THROUGH TRIALS FACED AND BATTLES WON,
HE STOOD HIS GROUND AND CARRIED ON,
NOT ALWAYS EASY, NOT ALWAYS LIGHT,
YET HE KEPT MOVING THROUGH EVERY FIGHT.
WITH STRENGTH INSIDE, BOTH CALM AND TRUE,
HE LEFT HIS MARK IN ALL HE KNEW.
THOUGH NOW AT REST, HIS LIGHT REMAINS,
BEYOND THE HURT, BEYOND THE PAIN.
IN EVERY HEART HIS LOVE WILL STAY—
A LIFE REMEMBERED EVERY DAY.
