Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Obituary

Percival Nathaniel Thorne passed away on September 5, 2026, at HCA Florida Poinciana Hospital at the age of 87. Born in Den Amstel, Guyana, he was known for his gentle spirit, kind heart, and peaceful nature. He found joy in gardening, traveling, cooking, drawing, watching movies, and spending time with his family.

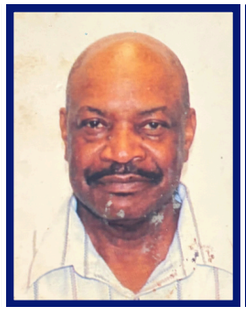

Born on December 11, 1938, to Nathaniel and Maud Thorne, Percival was the eldest of six siblings: Joseph Thorne, Mayfield Thorne, Patricia Thorne, Thelma Thorne, and Waveney. He spent his early years in Den Amstel in the villages of Fellowship and Hague, before moving to Georgetown. He later married his beloved late wife, Mary Claudette Thorne, and together they had two children, Roderick Thorne and Allison Thorne.

Percival served honorably for several years in the Guyana Police Force at Brickdam Police Station in Georgetown before migrating to the United States with his family. He later worked as Surveillance/Patrol Officer at Brookdale Hospital, where he retired after many years of dedicated service.

In later years, Percival married Monica Best Thorne and moved to Kissimmee, Florida, where he spent the final chapter of his life.

Percival will be remembered as a kind-hearted gentleman whose love, warmth, and gentle spirit touched everyone who knew him. He deeply cherished time spent with his children and family. The love he shared will continue to live on in the hearts of his children, family, and dear friends who will hold him close always.

May the life of Percival Nathaniel Thorne be remembered with respect, warmth, and deep appreciation for the service he gave, the goals he achieved, and the love he shared.

Instructions from Richard Funeral Services

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14: 1-3
