

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Costella Britton

Obituary

Costella Britton was born on May 11, 1935, to the union of the late Jesse and Hannah Britton in Winchester, Kentucky. The family later moved to Cincinnati, Ohio.

Her brothers, Eugene Britton and Jesse Britton Jr. (Elizabeth), preceded her in death.

Costella was a devoted and active member of Revelation Baptist Church until her illness.

She attended Cincinnati Public Schools and graduated from Woodward High School in 1952, where she majored in business. After graduation, she was employed at the University of Cincinnati Hospital until her retirement in 1985.

Costella was a quiet and thoughtful person. She loved to travel, work crossword puzzles, and garden.

She leaves to cherish her memory her niece and caretaker, Connie Britton; her faithful nephew, Kevin Britton; her sister-in-law, Sondra Britton (Eugene); and nephew Christopher Britton (Marilyn), who also preceded her in death. She is also survived by many great-nieces and great-nephews, as well as an extended family of cousins in Winchester and Lexington, Kentucky.

“God saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb. He gently closed her weary eyes and whispered, ‘Peace be thine.’”
