

"Miss Me, But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared.

Miss Me-But Let Me Go,
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friend we know,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds.
Miss Me- But Let Me Go.

~ Life and Legacy ~

George was born on October 1, 1947, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Homer (Willie Maude) Marks Sr. in Newton County, Georgia. He was educated in the Newton County School System and went on to dedicate more than 30 years of committed service as a tire technician at Bulldog Tire Company in Covington, Georgia, before retiring.

George had a spirited love for fast cars and a lifelong appreciation for western movies. Rarely seen without his signature hat, he carried himself with quiet confidence and charm. Beyond his hobbies, it was his love for family and community that defined him. A devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend, George believed in the importance of togetherness and mentorship. Over the years, he became a pillar of strength and wisdom for many who were blessed to know him.

He was preceded in death by one great-grandchild, Isaiah Byrd; eight siblings: Christine Benson, Airlene Bailey, Charlie Mae Dowell, Nell Manuel, Oscar Marks, Rufus Marks, Homer Marks Jr., and Ray Charles Nolley; as well as his in-laws Ruby Knauer, Shirley King, Bill Cooper, and Minnie Darty.

George's memory will forever be treasured by his loving wife of over 50 years, Lois Marks; his daughter, Ms. Lynetta Price; two sons, Mr. Demetrius Marks and Mr. Anthony Glover; and bonus children: Mr. & Mrs. Felix (Lacoshia) Johnson, Mr. & Mrs. Anthony (Teresa) McKibben, and Mr. David Wise.

He also leaves behind his siblings: Ms. Patricia Marks, Ms. Shirley Marks, Mrs. Thelma Banks, Mrs. Olivia (Lit) Nolley, and Mr. & Mrs. Larry (Angela) Marks; sister- and brother-in-law: Ms. Frances Nolley, Mr. & Mrs. Robert (Christeen) King Jr., and Mrs. Annie Cooper; a host of beloved grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews; and his lifelong best friend, Mr. James Pitts.

George Lee Marks lived a life rooted in love, hard work, and integrity. His legacy of mentorship, kindness, and steadfast devotion to family and friends will continue to shine brightly in the lives he touched.

He will be dearly missed and forever remembered.
