REMEMBERING BEVERLY FIELDS: A WOMAN OF STRENGTH AND SPIRIT

Beverly Fields, a devoted wife, loving mother, and cherished member of her community, passed away peacefully at her home on May 31, 2025. Born on October 6, 1957 in Smithfield, North Carolina, she was the beloved daughter of Roosevelt McAlister and Evelyn Smith, and was later adopted and lovingly raised by James and Rose Spruill.

Beverly received her education in Johnston County and was a proud graduate of Clayton High School. She continued her education at Hardbarger Business College, where she studied accounting.

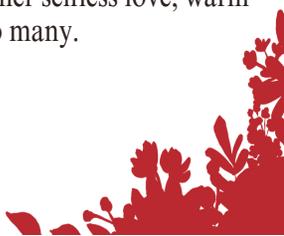

Following college, Beverly met and married the love of her life, Otis Charles Fields. Their beautiful union of 48 years was blessed with two sons, Seaven Sr. and Garrett, whom she adored and nurtured with unwavering love.

A woman of strength, grace, and deep compassion, Beverly dedicated her career to helping others through her work as a pharmaceutical technician at Novo Nordisk. Her commitment to excellence and service touched the lives of many, both professionally and personally.

Beverly's legacy is one of unconditional love, kindness, and community. She found immense joy in her family, her church, and the community she so faithfully served. Known for her creative spirit, she spent her time sewing, crafting, and decorating — always creating warmth and beauty around her. Her home and heart were always open.

As a faithful and active member of her church, Beverly could often be found visiting the sick, offering words of comfort, and sharing her radiant smile with everyone she encountered.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Otis Fields; her sons, Seaven Sr. (Linda) Fields and Garrett (Courtney) Fields; and her beloved grandchildren: Destiny, Quinton, Xzavier, Honesty, Jalyn, Camryn, Seaven Jr., and Taylor.; and one precious great grand Leonard Clark III. She also leaves behind her sisters, Shelia Hood and Shelia Lloyd; a special friend and caregiver, Kiwana Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who will carry her memory in their hearts forever. Beverly Fields will be deeply missed and forever remembered for her selfless love, warm spirit, and the light she brought into the lives of so many.

REMEMBER ME

Don't remember me with sadness,

Don't remember me with tears,

Remember all the laughter,

We've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented,

That my life it was worthwhile,

Knowing that as I passed along the way,

I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street,

And you've got me on your mind,

I'm walking in your footsteps,

Only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy,

Just because I'm out of sight,

Remember that I'm with you,

Each morning, noon and night.
