

Look For Me In Rainbows

Time for me to go now.
I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows,
way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise
when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me,
as you know I loved you.
Time for me to leave you,
I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows,
high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset,
when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me,
and I'll be close to you.
It won't be forever,
the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you,
when we meet again.
Time for us to part now,
we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows,
shining in the sky.
Every waking moment,
and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me,
as you know I loved you.
Just wish me to be near you,
And I'll be there with you.

Obituary

Dolores Wilson, 92, of Neptune, New Jersey passed away on September 2, 2021. She was born in Manhattan, New York on October 5, 1928, to Walter and Elizabeth Parker.

Dolores loved to travel all over the world with her husband Harold. She was a beautiful woman, very kind and loved to help people. Many years ago, she was also a member of St Thomas Episcopal Church, in Red Bank, New Jersey.

Dolores was an enterprising and successful businesswoman. She owned many businesses, one of which was a cleaning company. Some of her customers were Monmouth Park race track, Oceanport, NJ, Freehold Raceway, Freehold, New Jersey, and Atlantic City Race Course, Mays Landing, New Jersey, just to name a few.

She was predeceased by her parents, Walter and Elizabeth Parker, husband, Harold Allen, and daughter, Linda Powell. She is survived by her grandson, Shane Johnson, stepdaughters, Fern Johnson and Tyesha Coat, grandchildren, Cliona Lovett, Winter, Isis, John Moyer, Faith, and Rain, brothers, Lloyd and Ronald, nephew, Caleb and Shyrleen Morris and family, cousins, Derek and Christine, and finally, two very close family friends, Tiger and Brenda Stewart, who provide loving care and support to her grandson, Shane.
