

Poem:

"In tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken
We wanted you to stay

But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful, free of pain
How could we wish you back
With us to suffer that again

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home

Obituary

OSCAR LEON MAYHUE, JR., passed away on May 9, 2017, at the Jersey Shore University Medical Center in Neptune, NJ.

He was born September 7, 1956, in Duval County, Florida; moving to Neptune, NJ as a child. He attended Neptune Public Schools and earned certificates in refrigeration, air conditioning, and electrical work from Lincoln Technical Institute. He joined the Laborers Union Local 595 in October 1983, where he worked as a painter, laborer, and foreman on various construction sites until his retirement in 2012. He was also a member of the Local 343/595 Retiree Council and served as Recording Secretary for 10 years.

He was a dedicated member of St. Stephen AME Zion Church in Asbury Park, where he served on the Ushers Board for 10 years, holding the position of Assistant Secretary. He was also a member of The Seacoast Ushers Union where he was recognized and honored for his service at a ceremony this past September.

Oscar Leon Mayhue, Jr. was preceded in death by his parents, Oscar Leon Mayhue, Sr. and Patricia Bland Mayhue, as well as his two brothers Richard and David W. Mayhue.

He leaves to mourn his loss: his devoted wife and soul mate for 38 years, Deborah E. Taylor Mayhue, his son Ali Jamar Taylor Mayhue, Belmar, NJ, his daughters; Yolanda M. Taylor, Eatontown NJ and Deidre Taylor-Seaman (Barry), Eatontown, NJ, three grandchildren; Loren K. Jackson, Chelsea E. Seaman, and Brielle M. Seaman. His sister Linda D. Mayhue, brother Alvin Cannon, and two special cousins; Joann Daniels and Eugene Sims, his nephew; Richard Parker, aunts; Elizabeth Ware, Doreen Sims, Veresta Johnson, and Gloria Lambert, uncles; Willie Mayhue and Charlie Mayhue and a host of other relatives and friends.
