OBITUARY

Gregory Griffieth, Sr., affectionately known as “Greg,” was born on August 18, 1968, in Monroe, Georgia, to the late Annie Ruth Griffieth and the late Herman “Bo” Avery, Jr.

Greg was a proud 1987 honor graduate of Monroe Area High School. With a interest in mechanics and aviation, he furthered his education at Aviation School and later attended Dekalb Technical College. His hands-on skills and hardworking spirit earned him a reputation as a jack of all trades Construction, fixing cars, repairing things around the house, or helping someone in need.

On October 27, 1995, Greg married, Debra Gaither. Their union was blessed with four sons. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather who took great pride in his family.

Greg enjoyed spending quality time with his loved ones, especially cheering on his sons and grandsons as they played sports. He had a deep passion for music, a love for watching games with his boys, and was known as the life of the party. With his infectious smile and kind heart, Greg had a way of bringing joy and laughter to any room he entered.

He was preceded in death by his beloved son, Gregory Griffieth, Jr., and his brother, Carlton Perkins.

He leaves to cherish his memories; spouse, Debra Griffieth; sons, Marcus (LaQuoya) Griffieth, Davin Griffieth and Cameron Griffieth; grandchildren, Marcus Griffieth, Jr., Kyree Griffieth, Giovonni Griffieth and Maceo Griffieth; daughter-in-law, Ciara Griffieth; brothers, Michael Griffieth, Rodney Griffieth, Edward (Angela) Perkins, Sylvester Perkins, Byron (Kimberly) Perkins and Kenny Avery; a special niece, Tanesha Griffieth; special cousin, Cedric Banks, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
