TIME TO COME HOME
“Time to come home,” is what God
whispered to you
He did not want you to suffer anymore
He reached out his hand for yours
As your spirit followed Him to the Kingdom door

With tears in our eyes and hurt in our hearts
We watched you slowly fade away
As much as it pained us to let you go
We knew that you couldn’t stay

Your beautiful heart stopped beating
You took your final breath
Your strong but frail body was finally put to rest.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF R. Michelle Lowery

R. Michelle Lowery, 74, passed away peacefully on August 12, 2026. She was born on March 27, 1952, in Baltimore, Maryland.

Michelle pursued her education in Boston, Massachusetts, where she attended college and later proudly worked in the United States Armed Forces from 1976 to 1981. After her military service, Michelle moved to the South, where she married and began building a life centered around her family, faith, service, and community.

Michelle later began her career with the York County sheriff's Department for 20+ years, where she worked as a records clerk. She was known for her dedication, dependability, and willingness to help others.

Michelle had many passions and hobbies that brought her joy. She loved crocheting, coaching sports, and serving for many years on the Usher Board. Above all, Michelle was devoted to her children. She was their biggest supporter, always showing up and cheering them on whenever they played sports. She never hesitated to lend a helping hand and was someone her family and friends could count on.

Michelle leaves to cherish her memory her children, Taunya Brogden (husband Reginald Williams), Anthony Lowery (Kaitlyn, Parker, Bentley, Brielle), and Jasmin Lowery (Jade, RJ, Ramez, Jaleah), and her bonus daughters, Keyona Lowery (Troy Scott Jr), Amy Wallace, and Lamanda Wallace along with extended family, friends, and all those whose lives she touched throughout the years. Special thank you to Lori Crawford and Juliet Davis for being her best friend/sister.

Michelle will be remembered for her loving heart, generous spirit, strength, and unwavering support of the people she loved. Her presence will be deeply missed, but the memories she created and the love she gave will remain in the hearts of her family and friends forever. Rest peacefully, Michelle. Your love, kindness, and legacy will live on.
