

OBITUARY

Brittany Banks, a cherished daughter, sister and mother, passed away on October 28, 2025, in Covington, Texas. Born on October 12, 1990, in Fort Worth, Texas, Brittany lived a life full of love and joy, and she will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Brittany was a devoted mother to her daughters, Addison McKencie Banks and Audrey Grace Rhodes, who were the lights of her life. She took immense pride in her role as a mother, dedicating herself wholeheartedly to nurturing and guiding her girls. Her passion for life was reflected in her love for horses, a testament to her adventurous spirit and her connection with nature.

Brittany is preceded in death by her brother, James Banks, Jr., and her grandparents, Robert and June Jones, and Floyd and Dorothy Banks. Their guidance and love crafted the strong foundation upon which Brittany built her life.

She is survived by her loving daughters, Addison McKencie Banks and Audrey Grace Rhodes; her parents, James and Tammy Banks; sister, Andrea and her husband Jay Swindle; her nephew, Jacob Swindle; her brother, Gordan Banks and wife Kayla, and their children, and her aunts, uncles, cousins, and many loved ones who will carry her memory forward.

Brittany leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and compassion. She will be remembered not only for her devotion to her family, but also for the light she brought into the lives of everyone around her. Her spirit will continue to resonate in the hearts of her loved ones as they celebrate her life and the unforgettable moments they shared.

Brittany Lee Banks

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
