

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

*There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity
under the heavens;
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to scatter stones,
and a time to gather them;
a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to search, and a time to give up;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to mend;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.*
