For Those I Love, For Those Who Love Me...

When I am gone, release me, let me go -

I have so many things to say and do,
You musn't tie yourself to me with tears.

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love you can only guess,
How much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown.

But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve awhile for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near -

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and "Welcome Home."

Sandra Kay Scott was born February 9, 1956, to Charles and Hertha (Hertel) Scott at McLaughlin, SD. She was raised on the family farm and attended school in McLaughlin graduating from McLaughlin High School in 1975.

Sandy worked many different jobs after high school. Sandy met Melvin Bohon in 1979 in Oregon when she worked in a diner, and they moved to Pennsylvania. To this relationship, two children were born Tina and David. Sandy then returned to McLaughlin.

In 1985, Sandy was united in marriage to Martin Larson and to this relationship two children were born Wyatt and Drew.

In 2009, Sandy was united in marriage to Richard "Rich" Pearson. Sandy enjoyed traveling with Rich while he drove truck. She worked at the nursing home in Lemmon, SD for 11 years and then became a traveling nurse for two years.

Sandy then worked in animal control for 15 years. In 2019, Sandy and Rich moved to Kimball, SD.

Sandy passed away on July 4, 2022, at home at Kimball, SD at the age of 66 years. Gratefully sharing her life are her husband Rich, her brothers Lee, and Vern Scott. Her children Tina Bohon, David (Erin) Bohon, Wyatt Larson, and Drew Larson; 12 grandchildren, and several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Preceding her in death were her parents, a sister, a brother, and two grandchildren.
