

Obituary

Our sweet Scotty went to be with the Lord on October 21, 2025. He will forever be remembered by his family. Born in Lancaster, Texas, his young life was filled with love and happiness. He attended middle school and high school in Mansfield, Texas. Throughout his school years he expressed interest on technical subjects and was finally drawn to the profession of welding. Scotty studied his trade at Lincoln Technical Institute and also practiced as an accomplished welder in Corpus Christi. Through adversity he triumphed. Scotty found courage in his relationship with his redeemer, Jesus Christ and had charted a new course for his life. Tragically, he was taken from his family before he could realize his full potential.

Our beloved Scotty is survived by his mother, Gayla Young Nance and husband, Byron; father, Leland Scott Edington and wife, Susan; sister, Brittany Lewis and husband, Thomas; brother, Chance Edington and wife, Kailynn; grandfather, Fred Gaylon Young; grandmother, Janie Henry; niece, Kennedy Edington; nephews, Braxton, Zephan and Vander; aunts, Gena Alley and husband, Scott; Heather Rozear and husband, Michael; Melissa Vaught and husband James, as well as many cousins and friends.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 1, 2025 at 2 P.M., at Lawson Funeral Home in Meridian. Visitation will take place an hour before the funeral service. A procession will follow to the burial at Flanary Cemetery near Iredell, Texas.

Psalm 23

¹The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

²He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

³He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.

⁵Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all
the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
