

"Don't"

Don't spend too much time in mourning, tears are for the sad.
I've left to be with Jesus, and that should make you glad.

Don't waste your hours in grieving, no need to feel distressed.
I've dealt with life's frustrations, and in my happiness, God gave me rest.

Don't vex yourself with questions, or try to reason why.
Life here for me was ended, it came my time to die.

Don't lose the love I gave you, feed it with care.
Grow it with devotion, and spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving, came in such a way.
We'll have another meeting in God's eternal day.

Obituary

Larry was born November 8, 1947 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Lincoln S. Harris and Emily G. Harris.

Larry grew up and lived in the West End. Larry was educated at Taft High School in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Larry worked various jobs in his lifetime.

Larry was a loving and funny person. He found joy spending time with his family and friends listening to music and singing with his uncle and group in his younger days. He love to eat, especially sweets and snacks. Even in his final days, his laughter and humor or (jokes) never faded; he left this world just as he lived it- with a smile on his face and joy in his heart. He passed away peacefully, glad to finally be free of pain and at rest.

On March 24, 2026, Larry fell asleep in death and returned to our beloved creator God.

He was preceded in death by his parents Lincoln S. and Emily G. Harris; sons Keith Pressley and Dwayne Burch, sisters Brenda and Tracey Harris, granddaughter Nadia Lavender, and a cherished friend, the mother of his children Wanda Evans.

He leaves to cherish his unforgettable memories, sons Sean, Larry, and Emmanuel, daughters Cindi and Angeriecoe, brothers Lamont and Vincent, 14 Grandchildren, a cherished friend, the mother of his children Mary Burch Lavender, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Larry presence brought warmth and laughter to those around him and his memory will be cherished by all who knew and loved him.
