To Those I Love, and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,

So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,

All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a

'Welcome Home'.

A Note of Thanks

The family of Gwendolyn Latham wishes to thank everyone for their kindness, love, phone calls, visits, food and prayers. We appreciate all that was done during our time of bereavement.
We love you and may God forever bless each of you.

The Life of Gwendolyn Latham

Gwendolyn Latham was born on July 30th, 1965 to Tommie Nell Latham and the late Grover Cleveland Latham. She was preceded in death by her father and her brothers, Robert James McMillian, Earnest Lee McMillian, and Grover Cleveland Latham, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory her two children, Damien Antwaine Latham and Darryell Antwand Blakely Jr.; her mother, Tommie Nell Latham; and her five sisters, Barbara Ann Drieaux of Adel, Georgia; Brenda Lee Cater (Willie) of Lakeland, Georgia; Mary Ann Latham of Atlanta, Georgia; Sandra Denise Latham of Adel, Georgia; and Geraldine Williams of Catherine, Alabama.

She also leaves behind her beloved grandchildren, Demisha Ferguson of Atlanta, Georgia; Ky'Mani Latham of Tallahassee, Florida; Uzziah Latham of Adel, Georgia; Remi Michelle Blakely of Ray City, Georgia; and Nora Jean Blakely of Ray City, Georgia, along with other loving relatives and dear friends who will forever cherish her memory.

Throughout her life, she valued education and worked to better herself through continued learning. She attended Job Corps in Albany, GA, where she studied nursing, and later continued her nursing education at Valdosta Technical College. She also attended Wiregrass Technical College, where she pursued studies in Criminal Justice.

Her life will be remembered through the love she shared with her family, the relationships she built, and the memories she leaves in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. Though she is no longer physically present, her memory will continue to live on through her children, grandchildren, mother, sisters, extended family, and friends. May her life and memory forever be a blessing to all who loved her.
