

Thank you

The family would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude for your love, support, and kindness during this time. Your presence, prayers, and thoughtful gestures have brought us comfort and peace.

Pallbearers & Floralbearers
GRANDCHILDREN

CELEBRATION OF LIFE
LINDA D. FUTRELL
Lattimore

SUNRISE: JUNE 8, 1951 ~
SUNSET: OCTOBER 22, 2025

Service

Officiating, Pastor Edmond Bynum

Processional~ Soft Music

Opening Music~ “Jesus, You’ve Been Good to Me”

Opening Prayer~ Sis. Charlotte Bynum

Scripture Readings~

Old Testament:

Deacon Angela Stroud

New Testament: Bryshall Stewart

Song Selection

Obituary Reading~ Pastor Josephine Macon

Acknowledgements & Remarks~

First Lady Victoria Spencer

Sister/Cousin Frances Murrell

Lunsford

Granddaughter Khadijah Richardson

Song Selection

Eulogy~ Bishop Harvey Spencer

Closing Prayer & Benediction

Recessional Song~ “I’m Yours, Lord”

Obituary

Linda Dacarre Futrell Lattimore, daughter of the late Mary Futrell Bouknight, was born on June 8, 1951, in Smithfield, North Carolina. On Wednesday, October 22, 2025, she peacefully entered eternal rest, surrounded by the love of her family and the presence of her Savior.

Linda grew up in Johnston County, where she learned the values of faith, family, and perseverance at an early age. She attended Johnston Central Training School in Smithfield, North Carolina, where she graduated in 1969. She was known for her bright smile, kind heart, and joyful spirit.

Linda accepted Christ at an early age and throughout her life remained faithful to the call of ministry and service. She was a dedicated member of Cornerstone Tabernacle Ministries, Inc., where she faithfully served as a minister. Later, she became an to serve in that capacity at Greater Love Church, sharing the Gospel with conviction, humility, and compassion.

Her passion for prayer, her steady encouragement, and her deep love for the Word of God inspired those around her. She lived her faith not only in word but in deed, always pointing others toward Christ through her example of love and perseverance. Linda was a devoted wife to Ronald S. Lattimore, with whom she shared 41 years of marriage filled with love, faith, and devotion. She was a nurturing mother, a proud grandmother, a loving great-grandmother, and a faithful friend.

She was a dedicated homemaker who took great pride in creating a home filled with laughter, love, and peace. Her family was her greatest joy, and she poured her heart into every meal, conversation, and prayer. She also enjoyed the simple pleasures of life – cheering on her favorite pro basketball teams, sharing wisdom and humor with her family, and offering a listening ear to anyone in need. A Life RememberedHer legacy is one of love for the Lord, dedication to her family, and faith that never wavered. Though her earthly journey has ended, her light continues to shine through the many lives she touched.

She was preceded in death by her beloved daughter, Cheryl Lewis; her cherished granddaughter, Ciara Gee; and her two brothers, James Hinton and Charles Griffin. She leaves to cherish her precious memory her loving husband, Ronald S. Lattimore; her devoted children, Sharon Leonard (Michael), Rochelle Richardson, Katrice Richardson, Chad Lattimore, and Sean Lattimore (Carolyn); 17 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, a host of cousins, extended family, and many dear friends and church family who will forever be loved.

“May I Go Now?”

Do you think the time is right?

May I say goodbye to pain-filled days

And endless lonely nights?

I've lived my life and done my best,

An example tried to be. So can I take that step beyond And set my spirit free? I didn't want to go at first,

I fought with all my might.

But something seems to draw me now

To a warm and loving light.

I want to go. I really do.

It's difficult to stay.

But I will try as best I can

To live just one more day-

To give you time to care for me

And share your love and fears. I know you're sad and afraid,

Because I see your tears. I'll not be far, I promise that, And hope you'll always know That my spirit will be close to you,

Wherever you may go.

Thank you so for loving me.

You know I love you too.

That's why it's hard to say goodbye

And end this life with you.

So hold me now just one more time

And let me hear you say, Because you care so much for me,

You'll let me go today.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." - Psalm 116:15