

GOD'S GARDEN

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

OBITUARY

Randolph Earl Foley better known as PA-Pa or Uncle Randy" was born October 2, 1946 in Owensville, Kentucky. He was born into the union of Emmit and Norena Louise(Foley) Hargrove and was the 5th of eleven children. He completed his education at Hughes High School and with his art of cooking he had a long thriving career with J&W Barbecue for over thirty years. He loved participating in the sport of fishing with his great friend "Willy Brown" amongst many other activities such as reading, playing cards, and attending social events with family and friends

He was preceeded in death by his parents, three siblings and a loving daughter Kim Marie Griffin. He leaves to cherish his memory a devoted loving and dedicated wife Pamela Louise Foley, son Emanuel Earl Griffin and seven siblings, Mary, Marian, Terrence, Audrey, Anthony, Barbara, and Michael, seven grandchildren, Denisha, Madison, Lapeon, Jasmine, Demetrus, Tyrone and Matthew. He was also blessed with eight great-grandchildren as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
