THE LIFE STORY OF

Ray Douglas Bolden

Ray Douglas Bolden was born on July 13, 1959, to the late Otha Lee and Charles Finley in Las Vegas. Doug attended Zion Independent Methodist Church. He attended El Dorado High School. He was employed with Walker Furniture, Healing Minds Behavioral Health Services, Community Network Counseling and a Client Recruiter for several Behavioral Health Services.

Doug was devoted to his family, church and friends, whenever something needed to be done, he was there to assist. The one thing that was admired about Doug was that when he entered into the church, the first thing that he would always do is go straight to the altar and get on his knees and pray.

Doug leaves to cherish his memories: Sisters: Diane Bass (Marvin), Brenda Faye Davidson (Larris), Tammie Bolden, Evon Griffin, Kimberly Bolden, Eloise Holmes (Chris). Brothers: Jarvis Bolden (Marie), Calvin Finley (Drew Sella), and Richard Brown. A host of uncles, aunts, nieces, and nephews. Close Friends: Andy Graves, Andrian Lafear, Ray-Ray Meeks and his Uncle Mike Finley.

Preceding him in death: Parents: Otha Lee & Charles Finley, Brothers: Quincy Bolden, Lee Bolden, Larry Bolden, Odis Bolden, and Charles Finley. Sisters: Claudia Woods, Connie Chavez, Bonnie Bolden, Diane Finley and Debra Finley.
