

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Sharnaee Denise “Niecy” Meadows was born on September 1, 1968, to Bernice Murray (Meadows) and James Murray.

Niecy was a source of joy from the very beginning. Raised in faith, she was a proud member of Mount Tabor Baptist Church during her youth, where she built a spiritual foundation that remained with her throughout life.

Niecy was known for her love of cooking, often bringing family and friends together around meals prepared with care and seasoned with love. She was truly the life of the party – her energy, humor, and vibrant personality could light up any room. Nice, loving, and outspoken, she never hesitated to speak her mind. Her strength, honesty, and generous heart made her someone people naturally gravitated toward.

She leaves to cherish her memory her three children: Martize Meadows; Chazman Cannady (Brittany); and Erica Cannady. She also leaves behind her granddaughters, Jazzman and Ella Cannady; her sister, Yolanda Owensby (Rodney-Deceased); two nephews, Dion Meadows and Leonard (LJ) Meadows; two nieces, Aaliyah Montgomery and Jalen Owensby. She also leaves behind her lifelong best friend, Antonia “Tonie” Roberts, with whom she shared a sister-like bond from childhood until her untimely passing and her beloved godson, Lavelle Roberts; and a host of other close family members and loved ones.

Her legacy lives on in the hearts of all who loved her. She will be missed and forever remembered
