

Miss Me, But

LET ME GO

*When I have come to the end of my way,
And my work on earth is through,
Do not let sorrow fill your hearts,
For I've found my peace anew.*

*Remember me as "Stacy,"
With a smile both sweet and bright,
A little feisty, full of love,
A soul that brought you light.*

*I lived to care and lend a hand,
To comfort those in need,
With gentle heart and patient ways,
I served through word and deed.*

*If you should think of days gone by,
Of laughter, dance, and song,
Of BINGO games and Spades well played,
Please know I still belong.*

*When illness came, I held my faith,
And trusted in God's grace—
"Father, I stretch my hands to Thee,"
And now I see His face.*

*So miss me, but let me go,
Let love outshine the pain,
For in your hearts I'll always live,
And there I shall remain.*

LIFE STORY

Anastasia Patrece Swilley

SEPTEMBER 15, 1976 – MARCH 20, 2026

Anastasia Patrece Swilley was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina, on September 15, 1976. She was the beloved daughter of Ferris Swilley, Jr. and Leatrice Swilley. Affectionately known as “Stacy,” she was a people-person whose sweet and loving spirit could also become feisty at times. She was a lifelong resident of Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Having professed her belief in Christ earlier in her life, Anastasia worshipped with her family at Simon Temple African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church until her health would not permit her to do so. “Father, I stretch my hands to thee, no other help I know.”

Anastasia understood the importance of caring for others. Therefore, she regarded her career as one of her many Christian missions. She was a Certified Nurse Assistant (CNA) who was passionate about working with the elderly as well as in the mental health field. Her loving nature, kindness, and patience demonstrated her care for each person she provided her service for. She was compassionate with children, especially those who needed adult supervision. Concerned enough to make a difference, she took them in her care to give them hope. “If I can help somebody as I pass along, then my living shall not be in vain.”

Apart from her job, Stacy had pastime interests that she looked forward to enjoying. She loved to party with her family and friends. She looked forward to dancing and challenging others to play BINGO and Spades.

At the start of her illness, Stacy activated her faith knowing that if God brought her to it, He could bring her through it. It was He who allowed her loved ones to be devoted to her care and to bid her farewell on Friday, March 20, 2026, as she departed this life to enter the Glory of God.

“When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure.” Loved ones who will continue to treasure the life, love, and legacy of Anastasia Patrece Swilley are her devoted father, Ferris (Teresa) Swilley, Jr. of Fayetteville, NC; sons: Ladreke Massey, Durez (Tamara) Massey, and Thomas Swilley, all of Fayetteville, NC; siblings: Lacona “Connie” (Nathaniel) Torrey of Fayetteville, NC, Laketa (Terence) Bellamy, Alvin Swilley, and Temeka Dean, all of Madison, FL; seven grandchildren; along with many other bereaved relatives, sorrowing friends, and comforting Simon Temple A.M.E. Zion family.

Preceding Anastasia Patrece in death was her mother, Leatrice Swilley.
