

"I'll Fly Away"

*Some glad morning when this life is o'er
I'll fly away
To a home on God's celestial shore
I'll fly away (I'll fly away)*

*I'll fly away, oh glory
I'll fly away (In the morning)
When I die, Hallelujah, by and by
I'll fly away (I'll fly away)*

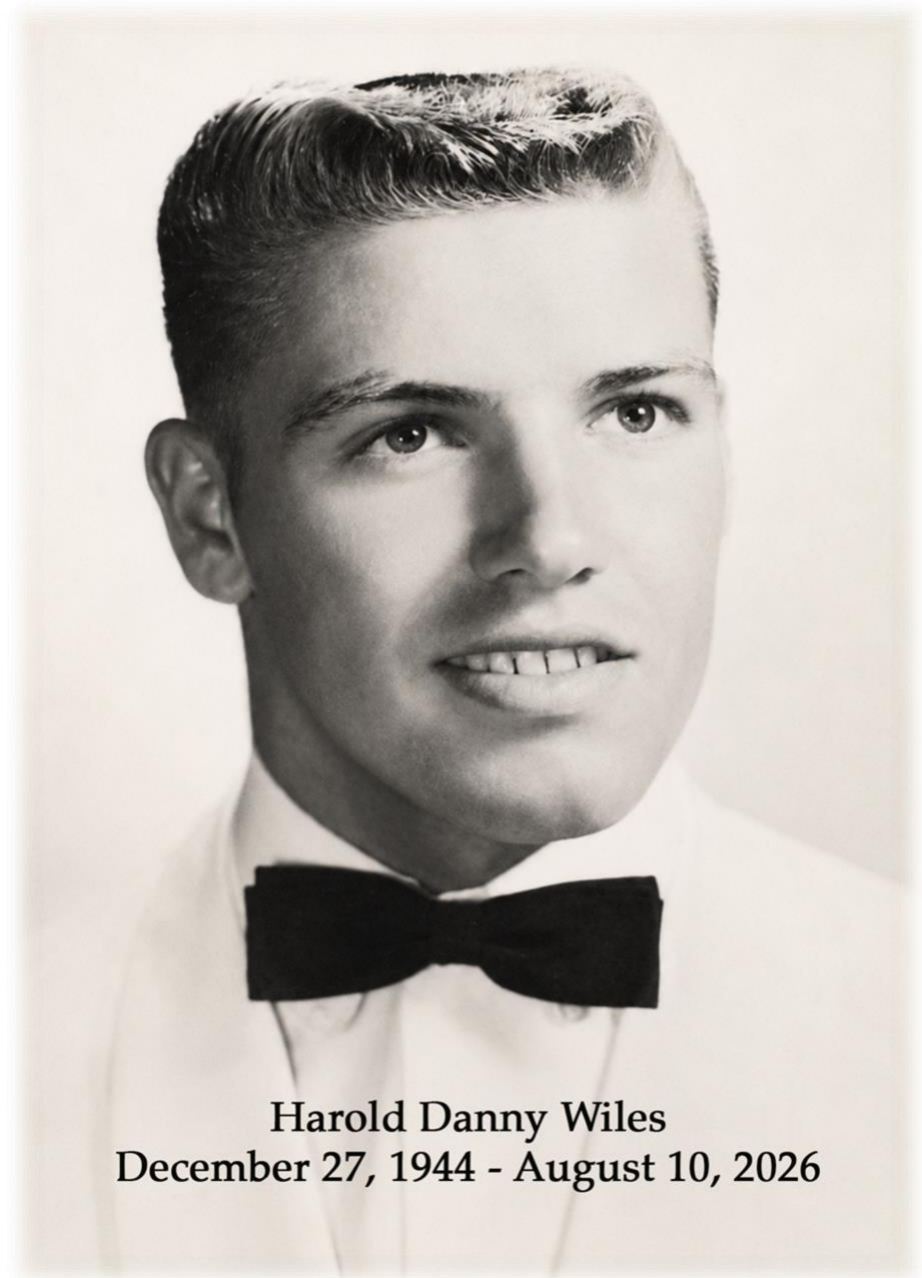

*When the shadows of this life have gone
I'll fly away
Like a bird from prison bars has flown
I'll fly away (I'll fly away)*

*I'll fly away, oh glory
I'll fly away (In the morning)
When I die, Hallelujah, by and by
I'll fly away (I'll fly away)*

*Just a few more weary days and then
I'll fly away
To a land where joy shall never end
I'll fly away (I'll fly away)*

Harold Danny Wiles
December 27, 1944 - August 10, 2026

"Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go it alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Mr. Harold "Danny" Wiles, 81, of the Paoli Community of Carlton, Georgia, and husband of the late Patricia Ann "Trisha" Miller Wiles, passed away on Monday, August 10, 2026, at Highlands Senior Living in Norcross.

Born at the home of his maternal grandparents, Molly (Adams) and Cliff Turner in Elbert County on December 27, 1944, Danny was the second of three children born to Harold Edgar Wiles and Ethel Olivia Turner Wiles. He was a graduate of Elbert County High School, where he excelled in both track and football. The Elberton Star reported in November 1962, "Danny 'The Dancer' Wiles sets new school scoring record during his senior football season, scoring 21 touchdowns and 126 points in just 10 games." He was honored with the Elks Award as the most Valuable Varsity Back.

Danny was a member of New Bethel United Methodist Church. He was a prominent member of the local Elberton granite community and the owner and operator of Wiles Granite Company, Inc., a monument and memorial manufacturing firm. Through his work, he built a successful career in an industry deeply rooted in Elbert County.

Danny enjoyed traveling, spending time at his mountain retreat in Cleveland, Georgia, riding his Harley near and far, and restoring automobiles. He had a love for the open road, the mountains, and bringing old cars back to life.

Danny loved his family. He is survived by his children: Lisa Elaine Wiles of Macon, Kristi Wiles Emeneker and her husband, Vic, of North Augusta, South Carolina, and Ryan Matthew Wiles and his wife, Shannon, of Avondale Estates; his grandson, Weston Payne Wiles of Avondale Estates; his step-daughter, Kelli Tate and her husband, Marty, of Elberton; his step-grandson, Christopher Tate and his wife, Abbey, of Lincolnton; his step-great-grandson, Brewer Tate of Lincolnton; his siblings: Linda Wiles Wansley of Toccoa and Mark Wiles and his wife, Stephanie, of Elberton; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends; and his beloved dogs: Rocky and Candy.

Danny will be remembered for his strong work ethic, independent spirit, love of family, and the many adventures and experiences that made up a life well lived.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, August 15, from 10:00a.m. until 10:45a.m. at New Bethel United Methodist Church.

Graveside services, officiated by the Rev. Richard Jarvis, will follow at 11:00a.m. in the church cemetery. Pallbearers will be Ryan Wiles, Victor Emeneker, Marty Tate, Jack Dye, Clint Dye, and Wally Edwards.
