

"The day our dad died, James, his grandson, sent this text to him. We, like James, wish there were phones in heaven, and there was a cure for cancer."

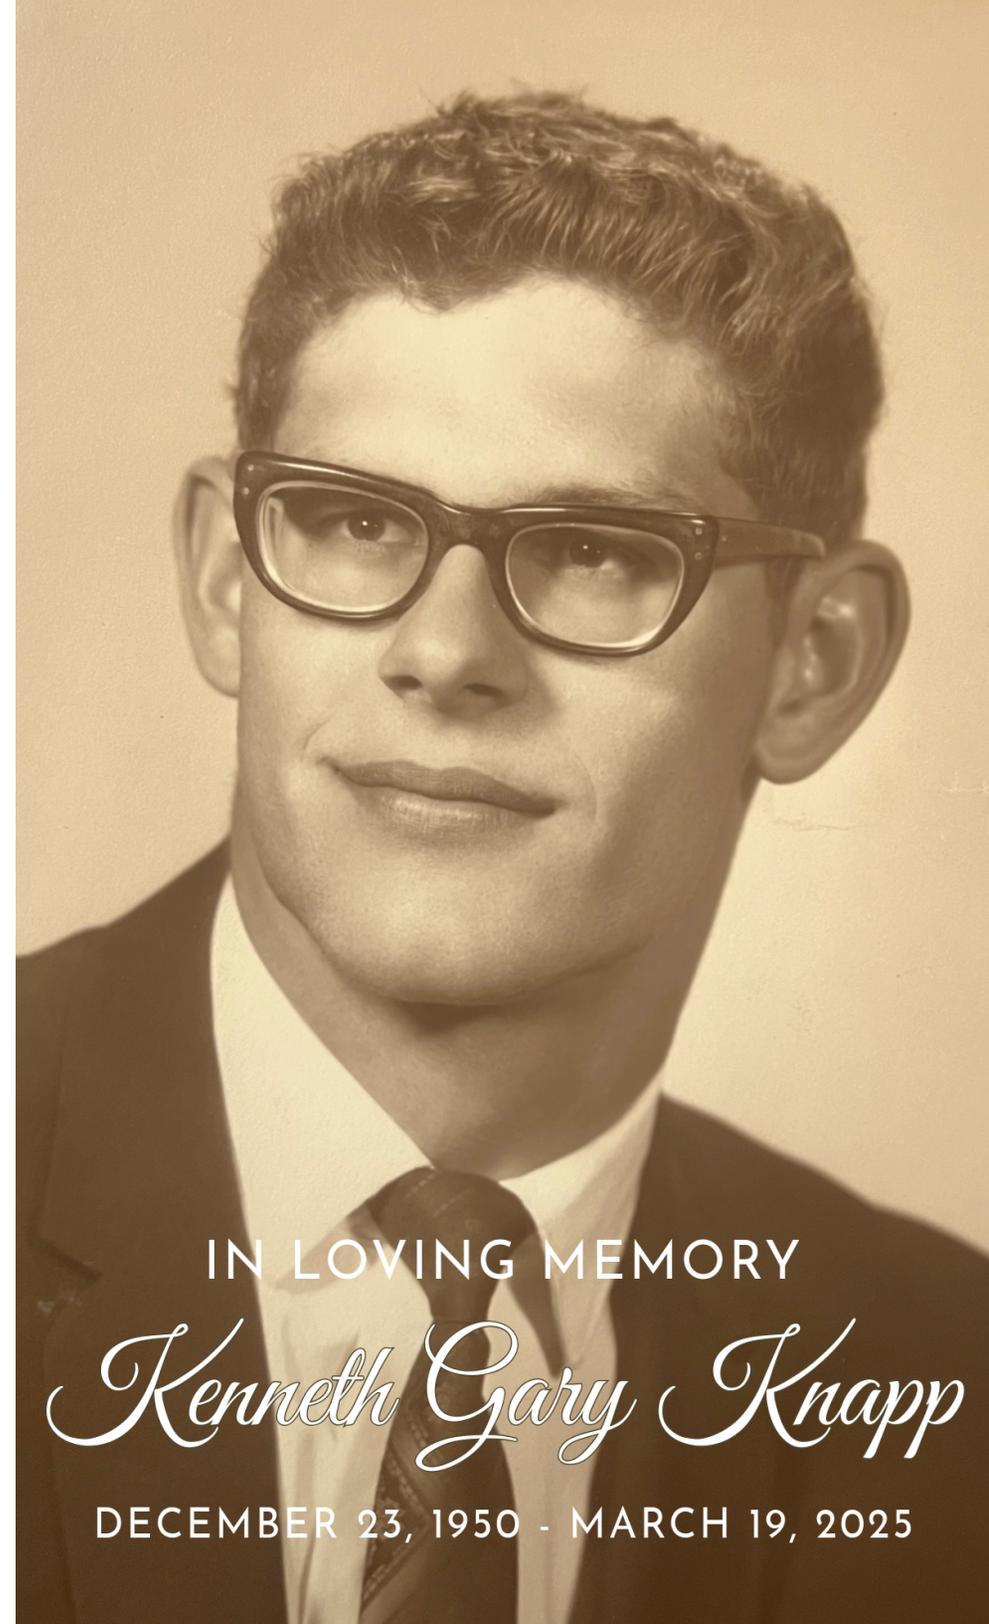

Hey grandpa I hope you are having a good time with grandma in heaven I miss you so much I left school early I hope you have your. Phone on you in heaven really grandma I said hi I wish you were here life is good just focus on the time with grandma I love you I really miss you I have a journal and on one of the pages I said I wish you weren't going to die if I could cure cancer it would. Solve all my problems
