Isaiah 54:10

"For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee."

Obituary

Tyreem D. Mitchell, age 47, of Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away peacefully on October 19, 2026, surrounded by his loving family.

Born on November 9, 1978, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Tyreem was the son of Brenda (Bates) Mitchell Sanogo and Tyrone Mitchell. He attended Milford schools and spent much of his adult life working in customer service, where he was known for his dedication, kindness, and ability to connect with others. His caring nature and willingness to help others left a lasting impression on everyone he encountered.

Above all else, Tyreem was a devoted husband, father, son, brother, grandfather, uncle, nephew and cousin. He was a passionate Golden State Warriors fan and proudly embraced his Philadelphia roots, enthusiastically supporting Philadelphia sports teams and everything connected to his hometown.

Tyreem's faith in Jesus Christ was a cornerstone of his life. He loved the Lord and found strength, comfort, and purpose through his faith. He was grateful for his church family and valued the friendships, fellowship, and spiritual encouragement he received through his church community. His faith was reflected in the kindness he showed others, the compassion he extended to those in need, and the love he shared with family and friends.

Tyreem is survived by his loving wife and partner of 18 years, Ali (Spaeth) Mitchell; his daughter, Nadia (Adam) Jerdo; his son Dominique Mitchell and his cherished grandson, AJ Jerdo. He is also survived by his mother, Brenda (Bates) Mitchell Sanogo; his father, Tyrone Mitchell; his brothers, Vernon Mitchell and Gary Smith; and his sisters, Kioena Smith, Danielle (Mike) Mitchell, Terika (Kevin) Dean, Dominique (Denia) Starks, Danetta Mitchell, Tania James and many aunts, uncle, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Tyreem's warmth, loyalty, sense of humor, steadfast faith, and unwavering love for his family will be deeply missed by all who knew him. Though his presence will be greatly missed, his family finds comfort in knowing that his journey on earth has ended and that he is now at peace in the presence of his Savior.

The family extends their heartfelt gratitude to everyone who walked alongside Tyreem during his recent health journey and to the medical professionals who provided compassionate care and support. The outpouring of prayers, love, encouragement, and friendship from family, friends, and his church community will never be forgotten.

Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause. Yes, let them say continually, The Lord be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.'

"Well done, good and faithful servant." – Matthew 25:23
