REFLECTION OF HIS LIFE

Jeffrey Allen Murdock.

Known to many as Jeff, Tito, Teet, or simply T., Jeff carried a heart that naturally poured into others. Known as a man of integrity, wisdom, compassion, and quiet strength—a man who will continue to live on through every life he impacted.

A gifted athlete, Jeff's love for basketball created lifelong friendships, unforgettable memories, and a historic legacy. He believed in bringing out the best in those around him. To many, he was more than a player, teammate, coach, or mentor—he was someone who believed in them before they believed in themselves.

Beyond athletics,

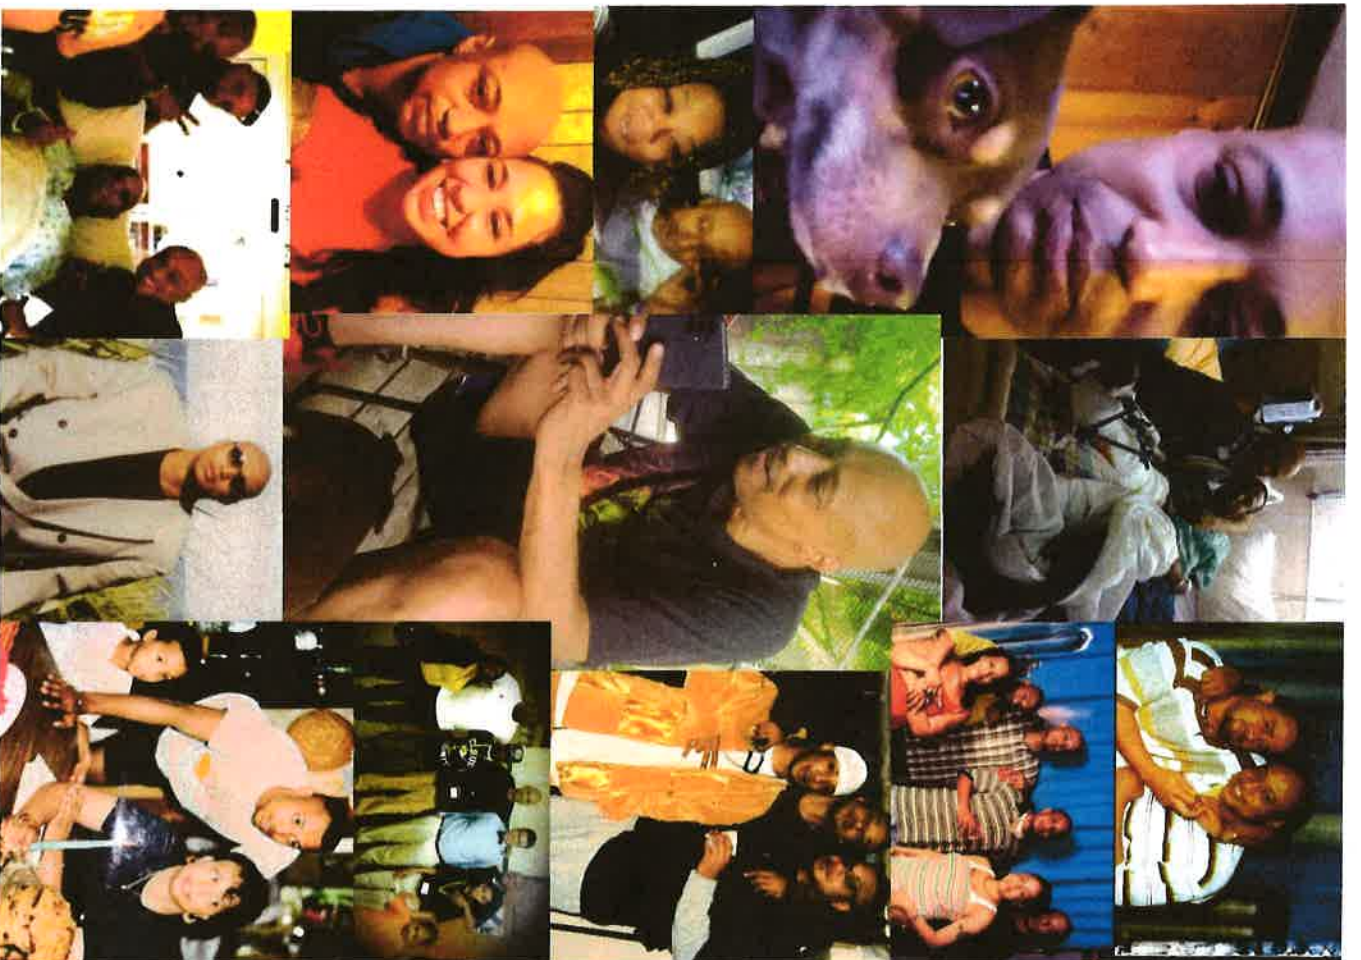

Jeff possessed an extraordinary gift for technology and problem-solving. Often relied on him for his knowledge, but even more for his willingness to help without expecting anything in return. His intelligence was matched only by his kindness.

Above all, Jeff loved his family. He was a devoted son, a loving father, a proud brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friends who made a lasting impact on countless lives.

Jeff is preceded in death by his fathers, Mitch Murdock and Larry Matthews. He is survived by his mother, Ramona Murdock. His surviving siblings are Johnny Murdock, Dawne Murdock, Jason Murdock Sr., Larry Matthews Jr., Justin Matthews, Yona Atkins, Brittan Bobbitt, and Britany Bobbitt. Children: Duwayne McKnight, Zeralda McKnight (Gay), and Davion.
