Memories to Cherish

Dear Dad, I wish I had more time with you. You will always be in our heart, and you are someone I will think about every day. No matter how hard life gets, I will still remember what you told me "be good in life" and the love you had for me. I wish I could have one more conversation with you. I will make you a proud dad even though you are looking down from the clouds. I love you forever, and until we meet again you'll always have a special place in my heart.

With love, Jacob "Jay'

Love to our brother. A funny soul, a gentle giant, a genuine friend, and a protective brother. You had a way of bringing laughter into any room, even when life wasn't giving us much to smile about. But behind all those jokes was a heart bigger than most people ever got the chance to know.

When it came to your people, you stood ten toes down. You loved hard, protected without hesitation, and never had to announce your loyalty because your actions spoke for you. You were one of those rare brothers whose presence alone made people feel like everything was going to be alright.

It's hard accepting that somebody who brought so much life into a room is no longer here to fill it. We can still hear your laughter, remember your jokes, and feel the love you gave so freely. That's the part death can never take.

Some people leave behind memories, but others leave a piece of themselves in everybody who had the privilege of knowing them. You were that kind of brother.

Rest in power, Brother. We didn't just lose a friend. We lost a protector, a source of laughter, and a genuine soul who can never be replaced.

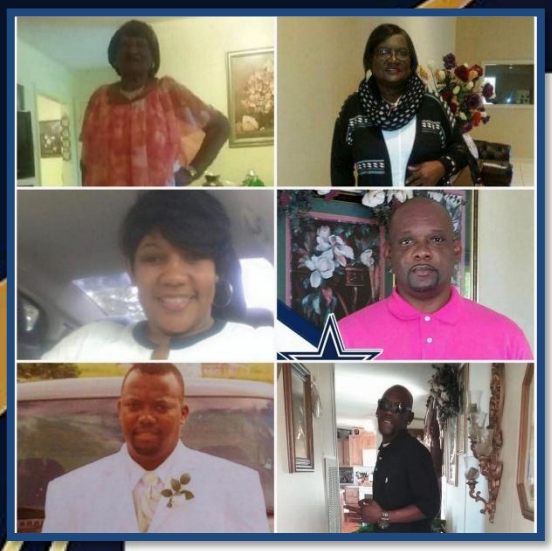

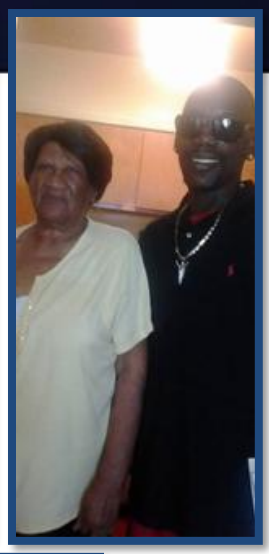

You may be gone from our sight, but you'll never be absent from our hearts.

Love, Life, Loyalty, Knowledge, Wisdom, Understanding

NEVER ENDING LOVE O-D ....
