Remembering the Life of Jimmy Dale Hubbard

Jimmy Dale Hubbard was the last child born to the union of A.C. and Rosie Mae Hubbard in Magee, Mississippi, on the day of March 29, 1959.

He accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Oak Hill Baptist Church of Mt. Olive, Mississippi, under the leadership of Rev. Saul Fairley.

Jimmy attended Mt. Olive Attendance Center in his early years then later transferred to Magee Public Schools where he was an astonishing student athlete. Shortly after finishing school, he enlisted in the United States Army where he achieved the rank of SGT/E5 with the Alpha Company 106 Brigade Support Battalion. He served his country through countless operations, making him a proud Veteran. While serving, he also became a certified diesel mechanic. During his time in the military, he became disabled and was honorably discharged. After being honorably discharge, he found hobbies in Lumberjacking, raccoon hunting, and raising animals.

Jimmy transitioned from this life on September 15, 2025. He was preceded in death by his parents, A.C. and Rosie Mae Hubbard; brothers, Charles Hubbard, Johnnie Hubbard, Eddie Hubbard, Buford (Bubba) Hubbard, and Roy Hubbard; sisters, Jean Hubbard and Bobbie Darden.

He leaves to cherish his memory: three sons, Anone (Lasandra) Hubbard of Columbia, South Carolina, Christopher (Mary) Franks of San Antonio, Texas, and Tywon (Allison) Lee of Magee, Mississippi, and his daughter, Korina Hayes (fiancé Marquez Easterling) of Houston, Texas; three sisters, Linda (Lee) Newsome, of Mendenhall, Mississippi, Reba Smith of Atlanta, Georgia and Ora Phillips of Arlington, Texas; ten grandchildren and one great grandson; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

The Order of Service

"Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not." Job 14:1-2

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Tributes to our Beloved

Dad

It's so hard to live in a world where I can't call out "my daddy," can't see your smile, can't hear your laugh, or sit with you laughing until my stomach hurts from all the crazy things you'd say. The fact that I can't hear you call out "Korinaaaaaa" cuts so deep. I still have all the voicemails you ever left me, but having to replay them just to hear your voice breaks my heart.

No matter what, I will always be your little girl. I love you so much and will carry your love with me always. Until we meet again, I promise to keep making you proud. As you would always remind me—
"Don't forget, I love ya."

Love—Korina

Dad, the moment that you died
our hearts were torn into.
One side filled with heartache, the other died with you.
I often lie away at night when the world is fast asleep, And take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheeks.
Remembering you is easy,
I do it every day;
But missing you is a heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly within my heart And there you will remain.
Until the joyous day arrives,
That we will meet again.

Love Always
—Anone & Chris

To my Dad

Thank you for everything you instilled in me your resilience and acts of kindness you displayed to everyone around you will stick with me forever and I will make sure your name lives on for an eternity. Continue to watch over my brothers, sister and myself like I know you will and you always did. We are our Father's garden; and will forever be his legacy. "Don't forget I love you boy."

Your son, Tywon

Tributes to our Beloved

My Brother, As kids, we lived together.
We fought, we laughed, we cried;
We did not always show the love, that we both had inside,
And some secrets too.
All the memories we share, is what bonds me now to you.
We grew to find we have a love that is very strong today.
It's love shared by our family, that will never fade away.
You are my brother not by choice, but by the nature of our birth.
I could not have chosen a better one.
You were the best on earth.
Love Your Sisters,
Linda, Nell, & Reba

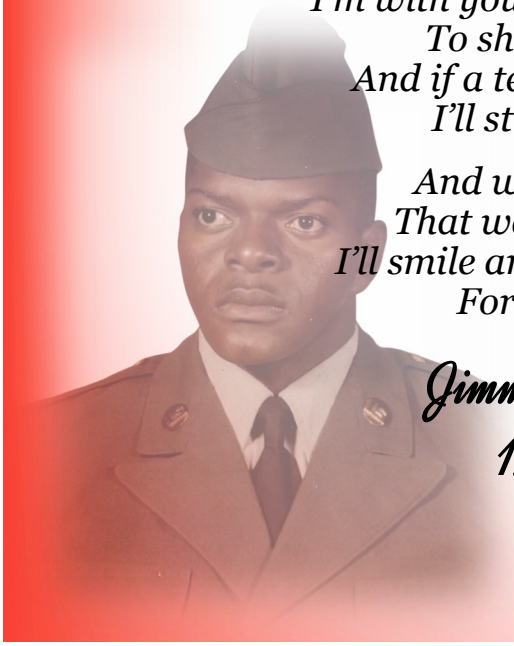

I'm There Inside Your Heart

Right now I'm in a different place
And though we seem far apart
I'm closer than I ever was…
I'm there inside your heart

I'm with you when you greet each day
And when the sun shines bright
I'm there to share the sunsets, too…
I'm with you every night

I'm with you when the times are good,
To share a laugh or two,
And if a tear should start to fall…
I'll still be there for you.

And when the day arrives
That we no longer are apart
I'll smile and hold you close to me…
Forever in my heart.

Jimmy Dale Hubbard
