Life Reflections

Barbara Ann Flynn was born to Mitchell and Vernissa Joyner on December 31, 1950, in Baltimore, Maryland. Barbara transitioned into her eternal rest on September 18, 2026, in Summerville, South Carolina.

We honor and remember a remarkable woman whose life was a living testimony of faith, perseverance, and unwavering devotion to Jesus Christ. She grew up as a member of Pennsylvania A.M.E. Zion Church.

Barbara received her education in the Baltimore Public School System and was a graduate of Edmondson High School, Class of 1968. She was the owner/operator of BJ's Catering, worked as a Coordinator at Youth Build, and served as a Community Coordinator at TriCounty Link.

After relocating to South Carolina, Barbara became a faithful and dedicated member of Mt. Carmel A.M.E. Church in Moncks Corner, South Carolina. She gave freely of her time, talents, and energy in service to God and her church family. Over the years, Barbara served as a Class Leader, Steward, Stewardess, member of the Women's Missionary Society, Pastor's Aide, and wherever else she was needed. She approached the work of the Lord with commitment, enthusiasm, and her own high-spirited personality. The Mt. Carmel church family will fondly remember Barbara for her deep faith, faithful service, vibrant spirit, and willingness to serve.

Barbara was a persuasive public speaker and sang alto in several choirs. She enjoyed holidays and special occasions shared with her family, as well as serving her community. Barbara was always fashionable, outspoken, exceedingly kind, articulate, and protective of others... oh and colors, she loved them all.

Despite facing significant health challenges, Barbara never allowed her circumstances to diminish her faith. She continued to trust God, demonstrating strength, grace, and steadfastness throughout her life. Though she is no longer with us physically, her love, faith, and the memories she created will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

Barbara was formerly married to Ronald M. Johnson, who preceded her in transitioning. Together, they welcomed three children: their daughter, Annisa Monique Johnson, who also preceded Barbara in transitioning; and their two sons, Ronald A. Johnson of Baltimore, Maryland, and Mitchell N. Johnson of Ladson, South Carolina. In 1995, Barbara married her devoted husband, Marvin Flynn, and they shared 31 years together.

Leaving to cherish her beautiful memory are: her husband, Marvin Flynn; sons, Ronald and Mitchell Johnson; three siblings, Nancy (Franklyn) Russell, Patricia (Arthur) Nicholson, and Tyrone Smith of Baltimore, Maryland; five sisters-in-law, Lynda Williams, Jacqueline Spencer, Priscilla Miller, and Rosalie Jefferson, all of Wilmington, North Carolina, and Nora Lee (James) Goodman of St. Stephen, South Carolina; two brothers-in-law, Ricky Flynn of Eadytown, South Carolina, and Ernest Johnson of Baltimore, Maryland; a godson, Kenneth (Wyteshia) Flynn of Moncks Corner, South Carolina; a goddaughter, Evangelist Malethia (Matthew) McKee; ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and loving friends.

A Life of Faith and Color

Barbara lived with faith as her guide,
With strength and grace always by her side.
A servant's heart, so willing and true,
She gave God her best in all she would do.

She loved her family, her church, and her friends,
Serving with joy until journey's end.
Fashionable and vibrant, outspoken yet kind,
A beautiful spirit, one of a kind.

Through every trial, her faith remained strong;
She trusted in Jesus her whole life long.
Though now she has answered her heavenly call,
Her love and her legacy live on in us all.

And just like the colors she treasured each day,
Her beautiful memory will never fade away.
