

Remembering the Life....

Ecclesiastes 3:4 "A time to weep, A time to laugh, A time to mourn, and a time to dance." Tom was called home by our Heavenly Father on December 4, 2025. While his departure leaves a deep ache in our hearts, we take comfort in knowing he is at home with his personal savior, Jesus Christ.

Thomas Edwin Warga was born May 12, 1956 to Raymond and Dolores (Norton) Warga in St. Cloud MN. He graduated from Holdingford High School, and went on to the University of Minnesota in Crookston where he studied broadcasting. His true passion was in broadcasting and announcing. He started doing voice overs and commercials in the late 90's which led to Rodeo Announcing. He traveled all over the United States announcing Rodeos, creating playlists, and learning every in and out of Rodeos. When he wasn't announcing, or in one of his sales positions, he was in the semi getting the sailboat fuel delivered. When Tom was passionate about something he never stopped researching. He researched the Bible and gained daily knowledge more than anything else.

Tom will be remembered by those who knew him for his ability to sell snow to a snow man, having a heart of gold, cutting up, his willingness to help anyone, his smile, laugh and larger than life voice.

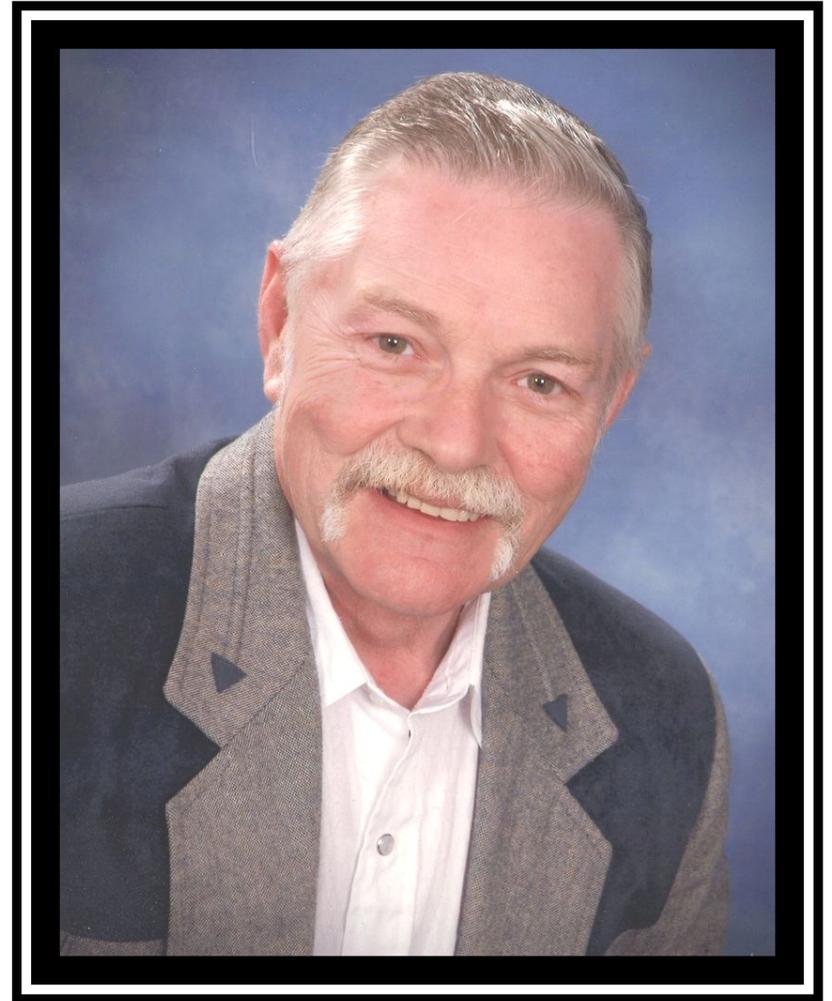

Tom is preceded in death by his loving parents, infant daughter Julie, and infant great nephew Samuel.

He is survived by his children Jennifer (Lee) Davis of MT, Jacqueline (Nikia) Buchman of KY, Michael (Melanie) Warga of KY, Daniel (Anna) Warga of KY; his brother Bruce (Cheryl) Warga of Holdingford, sister Ann (Dave) Anderson of Ashby, MN; eight grandchildren, two great granddaughters, eight nieces and nephews, twelve great nieces and nephews, and many special friends he encountered in his life journey.

The family kindly requests in lieu of flowers to make a donation in Tom's name to a charity of your choice or Mission Aviation Fellowship (P.O. Box 47 Nampa, ID 83653).

Blessed be the Memory of Thomas Edwin Warga

Celebrating the Life of

Tom

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now. He set me free.
