OBITUARY

“And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in paradise.” ~ Luke 23:43

Emmanuel La’Roy LeVine was born on July 18, 2002, at Trident Medical Center in North Charleston, South Carolina. Affectionately known to family and friends as “Deebo,” he departed this life on Monday, June 8, 2026, at his residence, answering God’s call.

He grew up in the Longridge community and graduated from Cane Bay High School. After high school, Emmanuel began working in the service industry and later developed his skills as a diesel mechanic with Blue Max Trucking Company.

At an early age, Emmanuel professed his faith in Jesus Christ and joined Greater St. James A.M.E. Church, where he remained a faithful and devoted member. He served his church as a YPD’er (Young Peoples Department), an acolyte and an usher with dedication and humility.

During his school years, Emmanuel played basketball and football as both an offensive and defensive back for the Moncks Corner Recreational League and Cane Bay High School. He participated in the Air Force JROTC program and attained the rank of Senior Master Sergeant at Cane Bay High School. Emmanuel enjoyed hunting, gardening, and fishing, and he especially loved sharing his gifts and talents within his community. He will be remembered as a young man of integrity who deeply loved God, his family, and his church.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents: Theodore Simmons, Jr. of Moncks Corner, SC, Paul and Abby LeVine of Cross, SC and; his uncles: Abraham, Nathaniel, Willie James, Randy LeVine, all of Cross, SC; his aunts: Nancy Williams and Catherine LeVine, of Cross, SC.

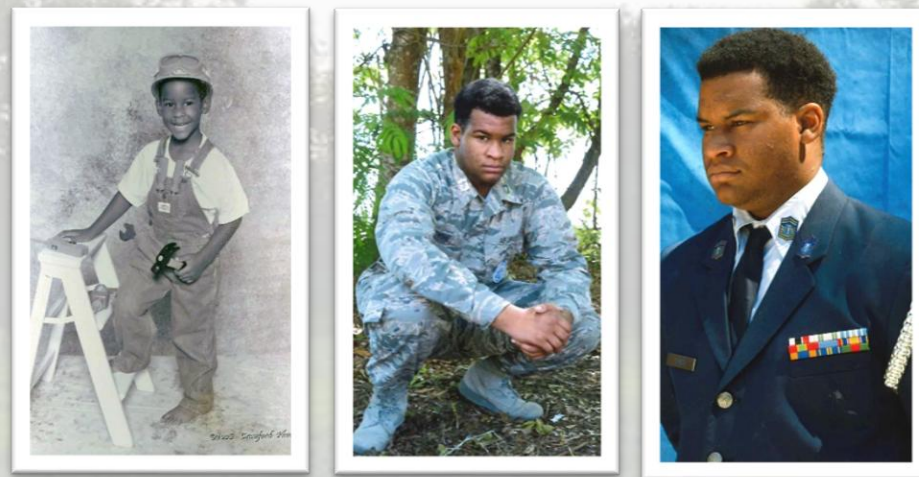

His warm memory will forever be cherished by his parents, Roy and Carolyn LeVine; his brother, Gabriel LeVine; his half-sisters, Toni Smith, of Cross, SC and Indira LeVine, of Maryland; his grandmother, Angelyn “Angie” Simmons of Moncks Corner, SC; his uncles, Carlton Simmons, Sr. of Moncks Corner, SC, Carlton (Ruthie) LeVine, of Summerville, SC, and his aunts, Vanessa Simmons of Moncks Corner, SC, Elisha (Joseph) Bryant of Moncks Corner, SC, Essie Mae LeVine, and Christine LeVine all of Cross, SC, and a host of other relatives and friends.

He will also be fondly remembered by his extended family, including his honorary brothers, Justin Bruce and Reece Cooper, and a very special young lady, Abi McGahee

REMEMBERING OUR DEAR BELOVED

Emmanuel La’Roy LeVine

If anyone should ask about me,
Tell them that Heaven is now my home.
My earthly work is finished, and a gentle angel has led me to a place beyond time and space, where I now find peace in hunting, gardening, and fishing along Heaven’s shore.
So do not weep for me now that my earthly journey is complete.
I have gone to a better place, strengthened by faith and guided by hope. Hold on to the smiles instead of the tears.
Do not dwell on what was left unsaid;
instead, treasure the memories we shared.
I have taken my final breath.

I want you to know I arrived safely and is now resting in Heaven with God above, where there is no more sorrow
—only everlasting love.

Please do not be saddened because I am out of sight.
Remember, I am with you always, morning, noon, and night.
God welcomed me home and promised that, in time, my loved ones and friends will gather here too. Until then, one of my greatest blessings is to watch over and care for you.

When tears come, let them fall, for they help ease the pain.
Just as flowers need the rain, sorrow is part of love.
Though my life on earth is over, I am closer to you now than ever before. When you feel the gentle breeze or think of me, know that I am walking with you every step of the way.
Walk forward with faith, help others when you can, and take life one day at a time. If my life brought comfort, kindness, or a smile, then it was worthwhile.

And when your time comes to leave this world, remember you are not going alone, you are coming home in love.

P.S. God sends his love.
