"A WOMAN OF GOD"

IN HONOR OF
PASTOR JUANITHA

Today is the day the Lord has made, Her voice would say, and hearts obeyed. Through weary souls and lives undone, She pointed always to God's Son. With tireless love, she lit the way, Bringing the lost to brighter days. Her mission clear, her purpose true- To share God's grace in all she knew. One son she leaves, her pride, her song, Yet countless souls to Christ belong. A mother, shepherd, guide, and friend, Her legacy will never end. Though now she rests, her race complete, She walks on Heaven's golden street. And still her echo will be made: Rejoice—this is the day the Lord has made.

To God's Hands

We can feel the ache of her absence, but not the end of her story. She walked a path of devotion, each step a conversation with God. She saw His love in the sunrise, felt His presence in the quiet moments, and trusted His plan. Now she is at peace, held completely in the embrace she always knew was waiting for her. The life she lived here is a legacy of faith, a reminder that love, like a prayer, can last forever.

A Servant's Prayer

Give me a servant's heart, O Lord; A soul that longs for you, A spirit that daily seeks your will, And strength to follow through. Give me ears to listen To the cries that go unheard, A mouth that speaks in kindness And proclaims your perfect word. Give me eyes to see the things that grieve your only Son And hands that reach out for the lost Until your work is done. Give me legs that carry me Swiftly through the race, And when I'm finished let me leave Footprints marked with grace.

A VICTORIOUS WOMAN OF GOD

PASTOR JUANITHA JACOBS BRENNAN
"Pastor Juanitha"

JANUARY 24, 1955 - AUGUST 27, 2025

Her journey was marked by unwavering faith, boundless compassion, and a tenacity that kindled hope in the hearts of many. Her life stands as a luminous testament to a spirit dedicated to uplifting others, leaving a legacy that will resonate through generations.

HER EARLY LIFE AND EDUCATION

Juanitha Jacobs was born on January 24, 1955, in Cotton Valley, Louisiana. The cherished daughter of Hartwell and Pearline Jones, Pastor Juanitha experienced a unique upbringing as her family traversed military life, residing briefly in Germany before taking root in Denver, Colorado. It was here that Juanitha flourished academically at East High School, showcasing her innate creativity and exuberance for performance from an early age. With her beloved brother, JJ, by her side, she organized spirited backyard shows. Shadowing the vibrant, visionary woman she would ultimately become.

HER FAMILY LIFE

Family formed the bedrock of Pastor Juanitha's existence. Despite enduring the heart-wrenching loss of her brother, JJ Jacobs, in 1977, she held his memory dear as she nurtured her cherished son, Spencer Terry Jacobs III, the culmination of her greatest joys. Guided by a steadfast faith, she imparted valuable lessons of love and wisdom found in Proverbs 22:6, grooming Spencer to walk a path of faithfulness, serving alongside others at the Kingdom of Glory Christian Center—a living testament to her nurturing spirit. Later she was united in marriage with George Brennan, her beloved husband whom she loved passionately, who cherished her deeply and faithfully supported her in every aspect of her ministry and community work.

HER MINISTRY AND COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

A loyal servant answering the divine call, she became an ordained pastor and transformed a former Ace Hardware building into the thriving Kingdom of Glory Christian Center in the heart of the Five Point Community. She became an unwavering anchor in the lives of those within the Denver community. Her ministry transcended the traditional confines of Sunday worship; she opened her home, leading initiatives to meet spiritual and practical needs, such as:

- Need To Feed food distribution
- Kids Entrepreneur business workshops
- Sponsorship of the Juneteenth Parade when funding was at risk
- Annual Thanksgiving Fest
- Noon day prayer
- Theater productions

Pastor Juanitha's unconditional love recognized no boundaries, extending grace to both congregation members and neighbors alike. As a teacher of the gospel, she illuminated lives through transparent sermons, prayer, television broadcasts and community radio programs, offering invaluable wisdom, encouragement, faith, and truth.

Her dedication to prayer was matched only by her ability to inspire others, establishing public prayer booths across the city, implementing a drive-up prayer mailbox at Kingdom of Glory, and creating a prayer wall adorned with thousands of heartfelt petitions from community members, which she diligently stewarded with fervent faith.

Pastor Juanitha's greetings were embroidered with love; she would often share blessings such as "Shalom," "Blessed and highly favored," and "Beloved," effortlessly weaving closeness and encouragement into her interactions. Ever the gleaming beacon of God's love, she cherished Psalm 118:24, proclaiming, "This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it," inviting all to join in the celebration of life.

HER MISSIONARY WORK AND GLOBAL IMPACT

Pastor Juanitha's impact reached far beyond Denver, as she courageously led mission teams to Africa, provided Bibles in China amidst peril, and supported communities in Ukraine. Each journey served as a testament to her unwavering commitment to spreading hope and compassion across the globe.

HER PASSION FOR THEATER AND THE ARTS

While her ministry was her paramount calling, Pastor Juanitha maintained a cherished love for the arts. Her performances with the Denver Black Arts Company showcased not only her talent but also her capacity to uplift voices and inspire cultural reflection, demonstrating that theater, too, is a transformative form of ministry.

HER MINISTRY

Pastor Juanitha's journey was one of extraordinary faith, bold vision, and tireless compassion. She showed us the beauty of serving with open hands, dreaming with courage, and believing in the boundless possibilities offered by God. As her voice continues to echo in our hearts, "Shalom, beloved. You are blessed and highly favored," we are inspired to walk in love, uplift each other in prayer, and rejoice in each day bestowed upon us.

HER FINAL DAYS

In her final days, Pastor Juanitha continued to inspire, sharing testimonies of faith with doctors and nurses from her hospital bed, her unwavering passion for the Lord shining brightly until the end. We find solace in knowing she is at peace, embraced fully by the Savior she adored, Jesus Christ.

Her legacy lives on in every individual she touched, in every prayer she lifted, and in every seed of faith she planted, resonating forever in our hearts. In the spirit of her frequent reminder, "This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it," may we honor her by carrying her message of love, hope, and unwavering faith forward. Her journey was marked by steadfast faith, boundless compassion, and a tenacity that kindled hope in the hearts of many. Her life stands as a luminous testament to a spirit dedicated to uplifting others, leaving a legacy that will resonate through generations.

HER LASTING LEGACY

Pastor Juanitha, who departed from this earth on August 27, 2025, entering into the eternal embrace of the Lord she ardently served. She will be lovingly remembered by her devoted son, Spencer Terry Jacobs III. She is preceded in death by her mother, Pearline Jones; her Father, Hartwell Jones; her brother, JJ Jacobs; and her husband, George Brennan.
