

Forever In Our Hearts

Letter to Dad

Like a dream…words can't explain how much I miss you! I hope heaven treats you good up there my heart. I promise and will forever hold your name alive…it hurts knowing i can't call you anymore and come to your house or hear you fussing no more. Just knew since I was out the womb, I was a daddy's girl and will forever be a daddy's girl!!! It hurts knowing I'll start a life outside of school and I won't see you but I know for sure you'll forever be in my heart remaining because everyday I wake up…I see your whole FACE ON me wish this was a joke and you were playing with us dad, really need you and my siblings do too but I PROMISE to care for all of them and make sure your mom is safe and the others around. Just want to hear your voice one more time or even get a call but I'll always be wondering till this day and waiting until we meet again.

Love, Genesis

Obituary

My son, Wesley Lee Alexander, Jr., made his earthly appearance on February 6, 1992. On December 8, 2025, he passed unexpectedly.

He was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System. Wesley decided to go to high school before he was scheduled to go. Early that summer he attended summer school and was able to skip the 8th grade and go directly to high school.

His love for our Lord began at an early age with encouragement from family. Wesley would hold church at his grandparents home with his cousin.

At the age of 15, he had his first job. He developed his love for cars early in his life. If he said he wanted a car, he would work and save money until he could buy it. He was a true hustler. He bought and sold cars, if the money was right. Later, using his talent, Wesley was employed as a mechanic at Daimler Truck.

Among his favorite things: he loved coaching youth football teams; he really loved oatmeal and spaghetti; and his favorite movie was the "War Room". Wesley's favorite color was green; favorite football team, Green Bay Packers; and favorite college team, Duke.

He loved tennis shoes and had hundreds of them throughout his life. He also considered himself a master chef.

Wesley was blessed to have 8 beautiful children whom he loved dearly. He was a devoted father. His oldest, Genesis and daughter Pure Alexander (mother, Tiffiny), Wesley Lee Alexander, III (mother, Lakeeta), Winston Alexander (mother, Kelly), Zy'yaire Alexander (mother, Ziferia), Kaylani Alexander (mother, A'yanna), O'Shea Washington (mother, Tenisha), and K'west Alexander (mother Aiyanna).

Those who will mourn his passing in addition to his 8 children are: his devoted mother, Denise Gilliam Barner (Derrick); father, Wesley Lee Alexander, Sr.; siblings, Jerimiah Gilliam, Darius Alexander, Kiara Alexander; grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins; and a host of friends.
