

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

Precious Memories

Little Miss Amaya Kennedy Bradley

 Those we love remain with us, for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone; those we love can never be more than a thought apart; for as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart.

Amaya Kennedy Bradley blessed her parents, Parrish J. Bradley, and Marshannon A. Brown Bradley with her birth on December 4, 2009, in Denver, Colorado. She was the second child born in the family. She was raised surrounded by love of her brothers, Mylo, Kordell, and her sister, Amani. From the moment of her birth, Amaya brought joy and happiness to her family and friends. She had a smile that would light up any room she was in. A fond family memory was that of the family going to Disneyland, where they were able to meet Mickey Mouse. The joy of the trip was both memorable and wonderful. They all had so much fun.

Amaya received her education by attending Denver public schools. She attended The Denver School of Science Technology program. She truly loved the interaction with her fellow classmates and her teachers.

Amaya was a sweet young girl, who loved being around her family. She enjoyed going to the park, museum, the zoo, and always keeping her family on their toes. She will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this kind and wonderful, young lady. To know Amaya was to love her.

Amaya Kennedy Bradley departed this life to the embrace of the Lord on November 23, 2024, in Denver, Colorado. Those left to cherish her memory and mourn her loss include her parents, Parrish and Marshannon Bradley; 2 brothers, Mylo P. Bradley and Kordell J. Bradley; 1 sister, Amani D. Bradley; her grandparents, Ivory Bradley, Wanda Garrett, George H. Brown, Katie Bradley; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
