THE LIFE & LEGACY

Steven "Stevie" McIntosh

[Steven Andre McIntosh, 61, of Kansas City, Kansas, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 15, 2024, at 9:03 a.m. Steven, lovingly known as "Stevie," was born on May 27, 1963, to Leo and Laverne McIntosh, who preceded him in death. As the eldest of six children, Stevie embraced his role as a leader, protector, and source of inspiration to his family.

At a young age, Stevie accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at Deliverance Center Church. His faith remained a guiding force throughout his life, shaping his kind heart, generous spirit, and commitment to others.

Stevie devoted his life to uplifting his family and community. A dedicated father and mentor, he positively influenced countless young people through his passion for coaching football. His journey as a coach began with the Cheetahs and culminated with the Schlagle Stallions, where he instilled values of teamwork, confidence, and discipline in every player he mentored.

Professionally, Stevie served his community with pride. He worked for many years with the USD 500 Transportation Department in Kansas City, Kansas. In 2005, he transitioned to the Unified Government of Wyandotte County/Kansas City, Kansas, continuing to give back to the city he loved.

Stevie was known for his unwavering loyalty to family and friends and his ability to light up any room. His sense of humor and natural charm brought joy to everyone around him. A lifelong fan of the Denver Broncos, Stevie's passion for football extended beyond coaching to cheering for his beloved team every season. He also had a love for dancing and was known as a great two-stepper, bringing energy and rhythm to every gathering.

Stevie was a steadfast presence in the lives of those he loved — a loyal friend who always showed up, no matter the circumstance, and a community leader who never hesitated to lend a helping hand. His humor, kindness, and devotion to uplifting others made him a cornerstone of his community and a blessing to all who knew him.

He is survived by his children: Steven A. McIntosh Jr. (Victoria), Brittney Payne (Trey Sr.), and Ty-Yana Gray, along with those he lovingly called his own: Warren Franklin, Tesha Gilliam, and Terrence Gilliam, who preceded him in death, as well as Jada Edwards and Ryan Edwards, all of Kansas City, Kansas. He also leaves behind his brothers: Michael McIntosh Sr., Leo McIntosh Jr., Alanzo McIntosh Sr. (Chaloe), and Troy McIntosh (Trina), all of Kansas City, Kansas; his sister: Joyce Gilmore (Thomas) of Loganville, Georgia; his cherished grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Stevie's memory will live on through the lives he touched, the laughter he shared, and the love he gave so freely. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile.

If only I could have you back for just a little while. Then we could sit and talk again, just like we use to do.

You always meant so very much and always will too.

*The fact that you're no longer here...
will always cause me pain,
But, you're forever in my heart until we meet again.*
