

OBITUARY

Judy Laveda Bowen, a cherished member of her community, passed away on March 27, 2025, in Fort Worth, Texas. Born on October 11, 1968, in Cleburne, Texas, Judy lived a life filled with warmth, laughter, and love.

Throughout her career, she served as a dedicated concierge for Pegasus, where her welcoming spirit and commitment to excellence endeared her to many. Those who were fortunate enough to know Judy often described her as the light that drew everyone to her. Her personality was both funny and feisty, which made her a beloved figure in the lives of family, friends, and colleagues alike.

Judy had a passion for cooking, often delighting her loved ones with delicious meals and the simple joy of homemade popcorn during movie nights. She enjoyed watching films and creating memorable moments. Judy was also a devoted pet lover, finding joy in the company of her beloved fur babies-Ellie, Tater, and Hunter. She was famous for her brownies, homemade marshmallows, and peanut butter pie.

She leaves behind her loving wife, Aleshia Bowen, her son, Matthew Spears, and her grandchild, Colten Spears. Judy's legacy will forever resonate through her family and the countless lives she touched with her kindness and genuine spirit.

Judy is predeceased by her parents and grandparents, who now join her in eternal rest.

Judy Laveda Bowen's vibrant spirit will be dearly missed by all who knew her, but her memory will live on in our hearts.

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess How much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone. So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a little while that we must part. So bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear All of my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and "welcome home."
