Reflections

Mary Delores "Mookie" Smith was born on May 17, 1994, in Wake County to Gwendolyn Barnes and the late George Smith Jr.

She received her education in Johnston County and earned her GED from Johnston Community College. She later continued her studies at Liberty University, where she remained enrolled until her untimely passing.

Mookie was a kindhearted young woman who was friendly to everyone she met. She loved to sing, whether online with her viewers or with family. When she felt a song in her spirit, she would simply begin to sing. She loved to pray and call on Jesus in every situation. She also enjoyed mime ministry and remained active in church whenever she could. Reading the Word was important to her, and she shared it with family and friends every chance she had. Through TikTok, she encouraged and uplifted others, often hosting Bible studies and spreading positivity.

Mookie was a giver in every way. From sharing recipes with her sister to keeping everyone updated on what was happening in the city, she was always a source of information and support. If you wanted to know something, you could call Mookie. She loved shopping, creating picture collages, and staying connected with her family. She valued family deeply and worked hard to keep everyone close.

She was preceded in death by her father, George Smith Jr.; her brother, Paul Tarver; and her grandmother, Delores W. Smith, all of Alabama.

She leaves to cherish her memories her mother, Gwendolyn Barnes (Eddie) of Asheboro, NC; two brothers, Michael Smith (Sakeitra) of Mobile, AL and Benjamin White of Raleigh, NC; three sisters, Regenia Turner (DJ) and Latasha Prince, both of Mobile, AL, and Brittany White-Green (Shaun) of Cameron, NC; two godmothers, Ruthie Parker and Tierra Jackson, both of NC; three godsisters; one godbrother; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Mary's legacy of music and song will live on in our hearts forever.
