

My Mother Kept a Garden
By Brandi Moore

My Mother kept a garden,
A garden of the heart;
She planted all the good things
That gave my life its start.

She turned me to the sunshine,
And encouraged me to dream:
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.

And when the winds and rains came,
She protected me enough;
But not too much, she knew I'd need
To stand up strong and tough.

Her constant good example
Always taught me right from wrong;
Markers for my pathway
That will last my whole life long.

As wife, she bloomed beside her loves,
A steadfast rose in every storm,
Her quiet strength, her faithful vow,
Kept their shared garden ever warm.

As friend, she kept a garden too,
Of laughter, trust, and open arms;
She welcomed all with kindness true,
And gathered souls with all kinds of charms.

We are all my Mother's garden;
We are her legacy.
And though she's gone to brighter lands,
Her garden thrives in love's sweet memory.
