

In Loving Memory

I was a rosebud in the dark.
The rose started to come out little by little it seemed.
The more knowledge I gained,
the rose bloomed.
As long as a person
wants more awareness,
the rose will always bloom.

Rosetta R. McCoy
February 20, 1944 ~ October 5, 2025

Walk Tall, You're A Daughter of God

Right now I have a prayer deep within my heart
A prayer for each of you there is a special part
That you remember who you are and He who lives above
Please seek for Him and live His way;
You'll feel His love.

Long before the time you can remember,
Our Father held you in His arms so tender.
Those loving arms released you
as He sent you down to earth.
He said, "My child, I love you,
Don't forget your great worth.

This life on earth we knew would not be easy.
At times we lose our way
His path we may not see.
But please remember always please that you are not alonw.
He'll take your hand,
He loves you! He will guide you home.

Walk tall, you're a daughter, a child of God.
Be strong - please remember who you are.
Try to understand, you're part of His great plan.
He's closer than you know - reach up,
He'll take your hand.

~ Jamie Glenn

Graveside Service

Friday ~ October 10, 2025 ~ 11:00 a.m.
Restlawn Memorial Gardens
2864 S 5th Avenue ~ Pocatello, ID
2 West ~ Row 67 ~ Space 15
Presiding ~ Bishop Jon Hancock

Did You Think to Pray

Prayer

We Thank Thee, O God, for a Prophet

Spiritual Message

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

Dedication of the Grave

Families Can Be Together Forever